

“They failed pretty badly handling my transition”

HOW CAN WE IMPROVE THE SAFETY AND WELLBEING OF LGBTQ+ PEOPLE IN WESTERN SYDNEY?

Western Sydney University partnered with ACON to explore people’s lived experiences and service provider perspectives. We developed a suite of recommendations to improve inclusion.

RECOMMENDATIONS

People wanted “the safety to walk down the street, the safety to access services, safety to speak up about DV, the safety of being allowed a voice.”

“Learn about LGBTI stuff. [Don’t] make assumptions about gender or sexuality”
“Ask me about pronouns.”

“Training for GPs”
“Greater access to counselling services”
