

University of Western Sydney
Bringing knowledge to life

Parramatta Community Justice Clinic

Community Information Session

Planning ahead?

Are you thinking about retirement villages & residential aged care?

Are you considering moving into or building a granny flat?

Then our speakers will provide you with information about some of these common questions. You may be eligible to make a FREE appointment to see a solicitor at the Parramatta Community Justice Clinic to discuss your case.

Speakers include:

Sue Field, NSW Trustee & Guardian Fellow in Elder Law, UWS
John Rafferty, Principal Solicitor, Macquarie Legal Centre
Thery Sorrell, Financial Information Service

Date	Friday 14 October 2011
Time	12pm – 2pm 12:00pm – Registration – tea, coffee & light lunch 12:15pm – Welcome 12:20pm – Sue Field, NSW Trustee & Guardian & UWS 12:40pm – John Rafferty, Macquarie Legal Centre 1:00pm – Thery Sorrell, Financial Information Service 1:15pm – Questions and Answers session 1:30pm – Refreshments
Venue	Club Merrylands Bowling, Corner Newman Road & Oxford Street, Merrylands
Transport	www.cityrail.info Free onsite parking
Catering	Light refreshments will be served
To register or for more information	Registration is essential. To register or for more information contact the UWS School of Law 9685 9529 or email your name to lawrspv@uws.edu.au

Event partners:

Parramatta Community Justice Clinic
Club Merrylands Bowling
Financial Information Service
Parramatta City Council Library
Parramatta City Council

Note: This event is an educational event. No personal legal advice will be given. To discuss your circumstances you may wish to make an appointment at the Parramatta Community Justice Clinic - 02 8688 7873

Law students helping Western Sydney

We would like to thank our key partners:

www.macquarielegal.org.au

Attorney General
& Justice

