About this user guide

Important note about InPlace terminology! Some terms in InPlace can be tailored to match those an institute commonly uses. For example, a system administrator might change the InPlace term ‘supervisor’ to ‘preceptor’. The changes will be seen wherever those terms are used in the InPlace user interface, such as field names, tab names, lists and so on.

The changes are not reflected in any InPlace documentation that we create for you (including the user assistance you’re currently reading) – only standard InPlace terminology is used. All instructions, however, are still relevant and useful as long as you keep this in mind.

This user guide provides overviews of InPlace functionality and step-by-step instructions for performing all the key tasks. To get you started, take a look at the following topics:

- Use your Home page (on page 9)
- View your placement requirements (on page 17)
- About available opportunities (on page 28)
- Manage your confirmed placements (on page 39)
- Use the Calendar (on page 45)
- Manage your shared documents (on page 61)
- About My Details (on page 63)
InPlace looks different in version 4!

InPlace has been simplified to improved the way you access and use your placement information. No more widgets on the Home page, just a simple To Do list and Notifications list!

Home page redesign

The new Home page has five main parts to it.

Toolbar

The toolbar has changed. Refer to the table below to learn how to access the same features in the new-look InPlace.

Note: If you’re using InPlace on a mobile device tap the menu icon 📜 to get to the toolbar items.

Opportunities

The name has been changed to Available on the toolbar. Click it to view a list of all opportunities that are available to apply for. You can also use the new Available pane.

Placement

It’s now the Confirmed link on the toolbar. Click it to open the Confirmed page and view all your confirmed placements and confirmed (successful) opportunities. From here you can access placement details, your schedule (and timesheets or log books), related documents, assessment reports and the new carpool feature.

InSight

To access log books, you can:

- click a log book (timesheet) task in your To Do list, or
- click Confirmed on the toolbar to open the Confirmed page, then click a placement and click its Schedule tab, or
- click the View All Confirmed button in the Confirmed pane to open the Confirmed page.

Note: You access timesheets in the same way as log books. (Previously you could access either timesheets or log books from the Upcoming Placements widget on the Home page. This widget no longer exists.)

Shortlist

Your shortlisted opportunities are now accessed from the new Available pane.

(not applicable)

The new Requirements link on the toolbar lets you open the Requirements page and view your full program of placement requirements. Previously, you used the Placement Requirements widget on your Home page. Most actions you could perform from the widget (such as submitting self placements or agency preferences, or responding to surveys) are now triggered by tasks in the To Do list on your Home page.
New link or new location

There is a new User Account menu on the toolbar, which you open by clicking your username. From the menu you can:

- click My Details to open the My Details page
- click another InPlace account (such as Staff Account), if you have more than one role, to switch to that view of InPlace. (Some users have more than one account. For example, they may be both a staff member and a student.)
- click Help to open the InPlace online help
- click Log Out to log out of InPlace

Confirmed pane

The Confirmed pane displays your next upcoming placement. Click View All Confirmed to open the Confirmed page.

Available pane

The Available pane shows you what types of opportunities are currently available.

To Do list and Notifications list – no more widgets!

Any information you used to access from a widget on the Home page is now viewed from a new location. In general, most of the information can be found as either a task in your To Do list or a message in your Notifications list.

1. click View All Confirmed to open the Confirmed page and view all your confirmed placements and any confirmed (successful) opportunities you had applied for via the Available page.

See Manage your confirmed placements (on page 39).
Use the Available pane

(Licensed feature) You use the Available pane to see at a glance what types of opportunities (such as projects, internships and volunteering positions) are currently being advertised. You can:

- click an icon to open the Available page and view just those particular opportunities

  Note: If there are many opportunity types click the forward or back arrow to cycle through them.
- click View all recommended to open the Available page and view a list of all opportunities (which you can then filter)
- click View shortlisted to view the opportunities you’ve already registered or applied for, or that you’ve manually shortlisted.

  Note: A green dot in the Available pane indicates that a new opportunity has been added recently.

See About available opportunities (on page 28).

Use the To Do list

Your To Do list displays a list of tasks you need to acknowledge, review or action. For example, you might have to:

- provide information that is missing or out-of-date on your My Details page (such as compliance information—police check details, first aid certificate and so on)
- complete a survey
- view all new self-selectable placements on offer and then decide which ones you want to apply for
- submit placement preferences, placement block preferences, agency preferences or opportunity preferences

  Note: For preferencing tasks, a tick appears on the task in the To Do list as soon as you meet the minimum preferences required.
- submit your outstanding timesheets or log books
- recheck a document you uploaded for verification that has been rejected by a staff user.

Click any task to open the relevant page and then complete whatever work is required. The task disappears from the list.

Use the Notifications list

The Notifications list displays information that you need to read but don’t need to action. For example:

- Placement reallocation notifications, which show the status of your current change requests (Submitted or Pending). When a change request gets accepted or rejected, the notification disappears.
- General messages, such as a message from your placement coordinator telling you that placement dates will be advertised in a week’s time.
- All placements or available opportunities that you’ve applied for and are currently pending approval.
Any of your self-placement submissions that have been rejected. If your placement coordinator or other staff member has recorded any feedback against your submission this will also appear.

Note: Notifications disappear from the list after 15 days.
Log in and log out

InPlace is used by a range of different people. You might be a student, a staff member at an institute or a person who works at an agency that provides placements to students at that institute. The steps below outline how to log in to and out of InPlace.

Log in to InPlace

1. Open InPlace in a browser.
2. Do one of the following:
   ◦ If the institute uses single sign-on authentication (and you’re in the InPlace database):
     - Students and staff members: Click either the Student or Staff button (or link), as appropriate, and enter your general institute login details. (You might only see a single button or link, depending on how your institute has configured the login setup.)
     - Agency users: Click the Agency button (or link) and then enter your InPlace username and password and click Log in with your InPlace Account. (The button/link name may vary, depending on how the login setup has been configured.)
   ◦ If the institute doesn’t use single sign-on authentication, in the login box type your InPlace username and password and click Log in with your InPlace Account.

3. If this is your very first login, you’re presented with the InPlace terms and conditions. You must read the content and click Accept before you can access your Home page.

Log out of InPlace

To log out click your username on the toolbar and then click Log Out on the User Account menu.

Switch to another InPlace user account

Some users have more than one InPlace account associated with their username. For example, they may be both a student and a staff member, or they may be an agency coordinator and a supervisor. The functionality you can access in InPlace varies according to which account you’re currently using.

Steps

1. Click your username on the toolbar to view the User Account menu.
2. Click the link for the relevant account.

The page refreshes to show the relevant view.
Change your password

Users who log in to InPlace using their InPlace account details can change their InPlace password on the My Details page.

Note: Some institutes use single sign-on authentication, which allows students and staff to log in using their general institute login details instead. These users can’t change their password in InPlace (the Change password button is not shown) and therefore the steps below don’t apply.

Steps

1. Click your username on the toolbar to view the User Account menu.
2. Click My Details.
3. On the My Details page click Change password.
4. Type your original password and then type your new password and repeat it.
5. Click Submit.

3. Click the Placement tab.
   It lists the requirements for the placements you’ll be expected to complete throughout your course.
Placement allocation

Apply for a self-selectable placement

If your course requires you to nominate a placement you’d like to attend, you’ll see a Self-Selective Placements task in the To Do list on your Home page.

Placements are published and are available for selection during a specified time frame, and their availability is determined on a first-come, first-served basis. All submissions are subject to approval by the placement coordinator, who will either accept or reject student nominations.

Notes:
1. You’re automatically notified by email when your placement has been accepted or rejected.
2. You can’t re-nominate yourself for a placement for which you’ve previously been rejected.

Steps
1. In the To Do list on your Home page click the Self-Selective Placements task.

The Self Selectable Placements page opens.
2. Note the number of placement hours (at the top of the page) that you need to fill. As you apply for placements, a progress bar indicates how many hours you’ve filled and how many are still unallocated.

3. Click in the Filter field if you want to filter for a particular self-selectable placement, or filter for placements within a certain distance of a particular postcode location.

4. If you’re not eligible for a placement the word ‘Ineligible’ appears under a placement. Hover over the word to view the reasons in a tooltip.

5. Click a placement to view its full details in a new page and access the Apply button.

6. If you want to apply for the placement click Apply. The page updates to display the words ‘Application submitted’ and the date.

7. Click Back to list to return to the Self-Selectable Placements page. If you haven’t filled all your required placement hours the Self-Selectable Placements task will remain in To Do list on your Home page.

   Note: You can withdraw an application but only if it hasn’t yet been approved. Reopen the placement (following the steps above) and click Withdraw your application.

What happens next?

- The Notifications list on your Home page lists all the placements you’ve applied for.
- Once you’ve met all the requirements a tick will appear on the task in your To Do list.
All applications are sent to your placement coordinator, who will review them and either approve or reject them. You’ll see a message in your Notifications list advising whether you’ve been successful or not.

You can view your successful placements by clicking Confirmed on the toolbar.

If an application was unsuccessful you can apply for another placement (if the closing date hasn’t passed). Follow the steps above.

Submit an application for self placement

Some courses allow you to source your own placements to meet your course requirements. If self placement is permitted you’ll see a Self Placement submission task in the To Do list on your Home page.

Once you’ve negotiated a placement with an agency, you click the Self Placement submission task, complete the self placement application and submit it. Your application is sent to your placement coordinator. They will check the placement for suitability and will either approve or reject your application.

Steps

1. In the To Do list on your Home page click the Self Placement submission task.

The Self Placement page opens. It indicates the relevant experience(s) and the number of hours or days you need to complete for each one.

Note: If the placement you’re submitting doesn’t fulfil all the requirements (for example, it only provides 40 of the required 80 hours experience) you submit the details and then you can add another placement. The progress indicator at the top of the form shows how many days/hours are still required.

2. Complete the details in the following sections:

   Note: You may not see all the sections listed below. What you see depends on how the placement coordinator has set up the page.

   Placement details

   1. Enter the start and end dates for the placement.
2. Select the relevant experience and enter the duration in either hours or days for that particular experience.

3. Click Add another experience if you need to add details of another related experience.

   ![Duration Table]

4. In the weekly placement roster enter the days and times for your first week of placement.

5. Click Add another weekly shift pattern to add rosters for all other weeks if applicable.

   ![Weekly Placement Roster]

Agency details

Enter the agency name, address and other relevant details, including details for the main agency contact person.

Contacts

Note: If the agency contact is the same person as the placement supervisor, select the Contact person is the placement supervisor check box to add the contact details automatically.

Additional details

Enter any additional details, such as validation information. (The information you see is enrolment-related.)
3. Do one of the following:
   - Click Save as draft if you want to finish it later. You’ll see a reminder task in your To Do list.
   - OR
   - Click Submit when you’ve added all required information.

What happens next?

- The Notifications list on your Home page lists your submitted self placement as Pending.
- Your application is sent to your placement coordinator, who will review it and either approve or reject it. You’ll see a message in your Notifications list advising whether it has been approved or not.
- If there are details missing from your application you’ll see a task in your To Do list prompting you to complete the form.
- You can view your successful placement by clicking Confirmed on the toolbar.
- If your application was unsuccessful you’ll see a task in your To Do list prompting you to submit a new application. Follow the steps above.

Submit agency preferences

Agency preferences allow you to select (and possibly rank) the agencies you’d prefer to go to on placement.

You submit preferences when you’re prompted by an Agency Preferences task in the To Do list on your Home page. You click the task, and then on the Agency Preferences page you review agency details and make your selections. The number of agencies you can select and the ability to rank agencies are configured by your placement coordinator.

You can continue to change your preferences until the closing date.

Note: Submitting agency preferences doesn’t guarantee you’ll receive your preference. However, they’re taken into account during allocation to best fit you to your preferred/most suitable placements.

Steps

1. In the To Do list on your Home page click the Agency Preferences task.

   The Agency Preferences page opens.

2. Note the number of agencies you’re required to preference.
3. Click in the Filter field if you want to filter for a particular agency, or filter for agencies within a certain distance of a particular postcode location.
4. Click any agency in the list to view its details in a new page. These details may influence your selection.

   Click Back to return to the Agency Preferences page.
5. Click the blue tick icon ✔ beside your preferred agencies.

6. If you have to rank your preferences the Rank preferences button appears at the bottom of the page. Once you’ve selected the required number of agencies click the button to open the ranking page and then drag your preferences up or down to rank them.

7. When you’re done click Submit preferences.

Note: You can change your agency preferences after you’ve submitted them if the closing date hasn’t passed yet. Click the relevant task in the To Do list on your Home page to reopen the Agency Preferences page.

A placement block is the block of time that you’re allocated to go out on placement, although you may not necessarily be on placement every day in the block.

Some courses or subjects may offer students a range of placement blocks to choose from, and require you to submit your preferences for them. A Placement Block Preferences task appears in the To Do list on your Home page when preferences are open.

Note: You can change your placement block preferences after you’ve submitted them if the closing date hasn’t passed yet.

Steps

1. In the To Do list on your Home page click the Placement Block Preferences task.

   The Placement Block Preferences page opens.

2. Note the number of placement blocks you’re required to preference.

3. Click in the Filter field if you want to filter for placement blocks within a certain date range.

Available opportunities

About available opportunities

Your institute may use InPlace to periodically advertise internships, projects, volunteering positions, seminars and so on that you might be interested in. As part of the application process you might have to:

1. apply through InPlace to your institute, attaching any relevant documents such as your CV, or
2. register your details through InPlace (typically used for events such as seminars or conferences), or
3. send your application directly to the agency that’s offering the opportunity.

You’ll see which method to use once you open an opportunity and view its details.

If there are a number of related opportunities on offer you may also be allowed to rank them in preference order.

Once you’ve applied or registered for an opportunity, your application goes through a review process, which may require you to attend interviews. Your application status will change accordingly (for example, Registered, Applied, Unsuccessful, Pending, Interview, Successful and Placed). The Notifications list on your Home page will keep you informed about its progress.

Depending on the type of opportunity, if you’re successful the opportunity becomes a confirmed placement and you can view its full details on the Confirmed page in InPlace. See Manage your confirmed placements (on page 39) for more information.

View and apply for available opportunities

You can view and apply for opportunities (internships, projects, volunteering placements, seminars and so on) that are advertised to you in InPlace.

Note: Some opportunities may be view-only – you can read the details but you can’t apply.

Access opportunities

There are several ways to access opportunities:

- On your Home page check the Available pane to see what types of opportunities are currently being advertised.
  - A green dot indicating that a new opportunity has been added recently.
  - Click an icon to open the Available page and view just that particular type of opportunity.
  - Click View recommended to open the Available page and view a list of all available opportunities.

- On the toolbar click Available to open the Available page and view all available opportunities.

- In your To Do list click the Preferences task (if there is one).

  Note: A Preferences task indicates that there is a group of related opportunities that you must submit applications for and also rank them in preference order.

  When the Available page opens, it lists only those related opportunities.

Apply for an opportunity

1. Open the Available page using one of the methods listed in Access opportunities (above).
2. Find and open the opportunity you're interested in.

   Note: You can use the filter at the top of the page to find a particular opportunity.

   The opportunity lists all relevant details, and you can also view or download any attached documents.

3. Apply using one of the two methods below:
   - If the Apply now button is not shown, it indicates that you can’t apply via InPlace. You need to apply directly to the agency instead. Follow the instructions on the page to submit your application outside of InPlace (for example, you may have to email your application directly to the agency). Your task is now complete.
   - If the Apply now button is shown click the button to open the application form, and then go to Step 4.

4. Read the application details and then enter any comments and upload any relevant documents (such as your CV).
   You can click Use photo if you want to attach photos of documents from your mobile device.
5. If the Select the order of preference button is shown you can now rank your application. Setting preferences may be mandatory for some opportunities. You won’t be able to submit your application if you haven’t ranked it.
   a. Click Select the order of preference.

Respond to an opportunity interview

After you’ve applied or registered for an opportunity, your application goes through a review process, which may require you to attend interviews. If you receive an offer for an interview with an agency, the offer appears as a notification and a To Do item for your response. Your application status also changes to Interview.

1. If you receive an interview offer in your To Do list, open the item.
2. Read the interview details carefully.
3. Use the buttons at the bottom of the page to accept or decline the interview.
4. The interview (pending your response) appears in your InPlace calendar as an engagement, and will remain in the calendar if you choose to accept the interview. Hover your mouse over the interview to view more details in a tooltip.

For more information about the InPlace calendar see Calendar, timesheets and log books (on page 45).
5. If you decline the interview, it will be removed from your To Do list and both the interview as well as your application for the opportunity will be considered declined.

   - Click Driver if you have a car and are willing to drive others to your placement.
   - Click Passenger if you’re looking for a ride.

   The page refreshes to show the names of nearby students (based on their term address). If you register as a passenger you see only the names of drivers. If you register as a driver you see the names of potential passengers and other drivers.

2. Click a person’s name to open your email app and then email them directly to make your travel arrangements.

3. Click Stop notifications if you no longer want to take part in carpooling. Your name will be hidden from all other carpool participants.

Calendar, timesheets and log books

Use the Calendar

The InPlace Calendar lets you view your confirmed placements and any self-selectable placements you’ve nominated. It may also show your course-related engagements (classes, lectures, interviews and so on) imported from an external calendar if your institute uses one.

The Calendar offers you the option to sync your calendar data with your own external calendar (for example, a Google calendar).

Access the Calendar

To open the Calendar click Calendar on the toolbar. The default view is Work Week.

- All your placements are shown in blue, nominated self-selectable placements are pink, and all non-placement engagements are green.
- In the Day and Week views all-day events (or ones where no specific time range has been set up) are shown at the top, in the all day section.
- In the Day and Week views the default calendar day starts at 7.00 AM and ends at 7.00 PM. However, you can click Show full day (bottom left corner) to see a 24-hour day. Click Show business hours to switch back again.

Perform some common actions

- Switch your view to Day, Work Week, Week or Month by clicking the buttons in the top right corner.
- Hover your mouse over a placement or engagement to view more details in a tooltip.
Add a new engagement:

- double-click a date to open the Event dialog
- enter the details and click Save.

Note: If you need to edit it later, double-click the entry to open the Event dialog again.

Export the calendar contents to Excel.

Click Export to Excel to export the Calendar's List view as an Excel file. The file is downloaded to the default location on your computer.

Notes:

- The data that's exported depends on what view you currently have open. For example, if you're using the Week view, only data for that week is exported.
- On a mobile device the export behaviour may vary.

Perform a Calendar sync

You can sync your placement calendar data with an external calendar. The data is exported as an iCalendar file (.iCalendar.ics), which is compatible with external calendars such as Google, Yahoo, Outlook and iCal.

1. Click Sync on the Calendar.
2. In the Sync your calendar dialog copy the URL provided.
3. Enter the URL where required on your mobile device.

Note: Syncing instructions may vary across operating systems so you'll need to find and follow the steps that apply to your own device.
About timesheets

Depending on your course or subjects, you may be required to complete timesheets for each placement. The level of detail you have to enter can vary from course to course, subject to subject. You may need to:

About log books

Note: Log books are an extension of InPlace’s Timesheets functionality. In addition to recording your placement attendance times and any absences, you also have to enter detailed information about the activities and tasks you performed.

Depending on your course or subjects, you may be required to complete log books for each placement. The Log Book feature tracks and manages your practical activities while you’re on a placement. Tailored per discipline, Log Book allows you to capture all the details of your placement experience.

You complete and submit a log book for each scheduled day of your placement. Once it’s submitted, your supervisor reviews and then approves or rejects it. They may also ask you to amend details.

You access your log books by opening a placement from the Confirmed page (click Confirmed on the toolbar) and then clicking its Schedule tab.

If you have any log books that are overdue you’ll be prompted to complete them by an Outstanding Timesheets task in the To Do list on your Home page.

About log book sessions

Every log book automatically includes one blank session that you need to complete. The session is divided into one or more sections, depending on what sort of data the placement coordinator wants students to record. You can use this one session to record all your activities for the day but you may prefer to add extra sessions to capture your activities in more detail.

Note: If a session contains any mandatory fields, you must complete these before you can add another session.

Example: During the entire day you see nine male clients and five female clients in four separate sessions. The males are their 20s and the females in their 60s. You’re treating conditions such as anxiety, depression and PTSD. This involves activities such as general exercises, mental health exercises and educational sessions. And you write a report about an activity.

This information could all be stored in one session. However, your supervisor won’t know which client is associated with which activity, nor what the clients’ ages are or how long you spent with them.

By adding multiple sessions to your log book, you can break up the day like this:

- Session 1. Nine males, aged 20–29, mental health, PTSD, general exercise 60 minutes
- Session 2. Nine males, aged 20–29, mental health, depression, creative visualisation – 60 minutes
- Session 3. Five females, aged 60–69, mental health, depression, Educational Session – 90 minutes
- Session 4. Five females, aged 60–69, mental health, anxiety, report writing – 45 minutes

Complete a log book

Log book are set up by your placement coordinator at the discipline level. You can't submit log books for future dates but you can, however, edit and save drafts well before the submission date.

There are three main tasks to completing a log book:

1. Task 1: Enter attendance details (below)
2. Task 2: Complete all sections in a session (below)
3. Task 3: Create multiple sessions (on page 56)

Task 1: Enter attendance details

1. Open the relevant logbook. See Access your log books (on the previous page).
2. In the Timesheet section at the top of the page enter your attendance details. At a minimum you need to enter your start and end times for the day.

   Note: As soon as you enter start and end times, Session 1 details appear.

3. Go to Task 2: Complete all sections in a session (below).

Task 2: Complete all sections in a session

A session is made up of several sections for you to complete, mainly dealing with clients, conditions and activities that relate to your discipline. Complete each section with as much detail as possible.

Note: The examples used in this task are taken from a Physiotherapy log book and may appear different from what you see in your own log books. However, the steps remain basically the same.

Copy a previous session’s details

(optional) You can use the Copy function to copy all details from a session you’ve already completed (including previous days). This is handy if you’re performing the same tasks and hours two or more days in a row.

1. Select the relevant date and session.
2. Click Copy.
Rename the session

(optional) You can change the default session name to something more meaningful to help identify the current session. This is useful when creating and navigating multiple sessions.

Add clients

1. In the Clients section click Add Clients.
2. In the Client Group field select the client types you worked with on the placement for the time period specified in the log book.
3. Select the number of men and women you worked with.
4. Select the age ranges of the clients you worked with.
5. Click outside the field to save your changes.

Add conditions

Select the specific condition you worked with. You can add as many different conditions as you like for the time period specified in the log book.

1. In the Conditions section click Add Condition.
2. In the Condition Groups field select a condition group.
3. Select one or more conditions.
   Note: Duplicate conditions are not permitted.

4. (optional) Select one or more condition details.
   Note: You can select multiple condition details for a condition but you can’t add duplicate condition details.

5. Click outside the field to save your changes.

6. Continue adding conditions, depending on your experience on that scheduled day.

Add activities

1. In the Activity section click Add Activity.

2. In the Category field select the category.
   Note: The category you select filters the options in the Description field.

3. Select one or more activity descriptions.
   Note: Duplicate descriptions are not permitted.

4. (optional) Select one or more activity details.
   Note: You can select multiple activity details for a condition but you can’t add duplicate activity details.

5. Select the total time in minutes that you spent on these activities.

6. Click outside the field to save your changes.

7. Continue adding activities, depending on your experience on that scheduled day.

Add SOAP Notes

A SOAP note is a documentation method employed by health care providers. It has four parts:
Subjective data

Objective data

Assessment

Plan

</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Task 3: Create multiple sessions

By default, every log book automatically includes one blank session. You can use this one session to record all your activities for the day but you may prefer to add extra sessions to capture your activities in more detail.

Example: During the entire day you might see nine male clients and five female clients in four separate sessions. The males may be in their 20s and the females in their 60s. You may be treating conditions such as anxiety, depression and PTSD. This may involve activities such as general exercises, mental health exercises and educational sessions. You may write a report about an activity.

This information could all be stored in one session. However, your supervisor won’t know which client is associated with which activity, nor what the clients’ ages are or how long you spent with them.

By adding multiple sessions to your log book, you can break up the day like this:

- Session 1. Nine males, aged 20–29, mental health, PTSD, general exercise 60 minutes
- Session 2. Nine males, aged 20–29, mental health, depression, creative visualisation – 60 minutes
- Session 3. Five females, aged 60–69, mental health, depression, Educational Session – 90 minutes
- Session 4. Five females, aged 60–69, mental health, anxiety, report writing – 45 minutes

Notes:

- You can add up to 16 sessions per log book and name each session differently.
- If a session contains any mandatory fields, you must complete these before you can add another session.
- Clicking Delete Session only deletes the last session you added. You can’t select a different session to delete.

1. In the Activities section of your log book click Add Session.
2. When you add a new session, the log book checks that you have completed the mandatory fields for the current session. Correct any errors before continuing.

Save was unsuccessful. Please correct the errors and try again.
- Activity Row 1 - Activity Description requires a value.
- Activity Row 1 - Recorded Activity Time must be greater than zero.
- Client Group Row 1 - Age Range must be selected.
- Client Group Row 1 - Client Group must be selected.

If there are no errors, a second session is added to your log book.

3. Repeat Task 2: Complete all sections in a session (on page 53) to complete the new session.

4. After you have created multiple sessions, use the session list to navigate between each session.
