

DSAA
Development Studies Association of Australia

Development Studies Association of Australia (DSAA) Conference

Un/Doing Development

7-8 July 2022

Hosted by:

WESTERN SYDNEY
UNIVERSITY

Short Program

Thursday Day 1: 7 July

|                                  | Stream 1:GEDSI   | Stream 2Indigenous Knowledges | Stream 3Development Practice | Stream 4Critical Development | Stream 5Politics and Development | Stream 6Economics/localisation |
|----------------------------------|--|-----------------------------------|----------------------------------|----------------------------------|--------------------------------------|------------------------------------|
| Morning8:45-10:30        | Welcome to Country (Video) Due to responsibilities during NAIDOC week Aboriginal elders will deliver the Welcome to country via Video. WSU Welcome by PVC Research, Prof. Kevin Dunn (Video) &amp; DSAA Welcome (Livestream) Opening Keynote Address: Associate Professor Jackie Kauli, Queensland University of Technology |                                   |                                  |                                  |                                      |                                    |
| COFFEE BREAK (30 minutes) |  |                                   |                                  |                                  |                                      |                                    |

|                                     |   |   |  |  |  |   |
|-------------------------------------|---|---|--|--|--|---|
| Mid-Morn11-12:30 | Paper Session: GenderChair: Nichole Georgeou Exploring Men's perspectives on women's involvement in Local governance in the Wenchi Municipality of GhanaCharles Gyan, McGill University; Ata Senior Yeboah, KNUST; Eunice Abbey, University of Ghana; Vyda Mamley Hervie, University of Ghana Strategy and vernacularisation of the concept of gender equality in women's empowerment programs in Indonesia (a case study of informal women's schools in villages of the Spermonde Islands in South Sulawesi, Indonesia)Ulya Jamson, Department of Anthropology and Development Studies, School of Social and Political Science, Faculty of Arts, The University of Melbourne How Indian NGOs use the 'Doing Good' narrative to under-compensate women's (emotional) labour.Pranjali Das, Australian National University | Panel: Recognising knowledge gaps: Indigenous Solomon Islanders' experiences and contributions to natural resource management and development debates Chair: Gordon Nanau, University of the South Pacific; Logging versus alternative development in rural Solomon IslandsJerry Siota, Solomon Islands National University Community based fisheries management and indigenous governance systems in Solomon IslandsSenoveva Mauli, University of Wollongong; Interactions between the Oil Palm Industry and indigenous rural communities in the Solomon IslandsLincy Penderverana, Solomon Islands National University | Panel: Re-imagining partnership for mutual respect and locally-led development Chair: Charles Mphande PNG's National Development Goals and Directive Principles and locally led development.Elizabeth Cox Un-doing colonial hierarchies in the development aid sector in Papua New GuineaMercy Masta, RMIT Unpacking the Partnership: Research into a 20-year community to community friendship with Timor-LesteAnn Wigglesworth, Victoria University | Paper Session: Displacement &amp; ResettlementChair: Kearnin Sims Development-Induced Resettlement and Intangible Losses: Revealing Gaps In Policy Making and Praxis.Joshua Matanzima, La Trobe University, Melbourne, Australia Planned relocation or in situ management? Comparing the justice outcomes of two state-led climate change adaptation responses in the PhilippinesBrooke Wilmsen, La Trobe University:Justin See, University of Canberra Understanding complexities around Gender, Climate change adaptation, and Cultural Sustainability: Insights from BangladeshSajal Roy, Centre for Social Impacts, UNSW Business School, University of New South Wales Utsab Bhattarai, Institute for Culture and Society, Western Sydney University | Panel: Reframing Inclusive Enterprise Development through Critical Cross-Cultural LensesChair: Matthew Mabefam Robyn Eversole, Centre for Social Impact, Swinburne University of Technology Cindy Reese Mitchell, Centre for Social Impact, Swinburne University of Technology Deanna Hutchinson, Centre for Social Impact, Swinburne University of Technology Juliana Lobo de Queiroz, Centre for Social Impact, Swinburne University of Technology | Paper Session: Economic DevelopmentChair: Nidhi Wali Postcolonial Perspectives on Nationalism, Growth, and DevelopmentMarjorie Muyrong, Manila, Philippines/ La Trobe University Financial Inclusion as a Strategy for Economic Equity and Poverty Alleviation within Indonesian Households)Joseph K. Assan, Brandeis University,Suhendi E. Saputro, Ministry of Finance of Republic of IndonesiaDinar D. Kharisma, Brandeis UniversityRyan Lansing, Brandeis University Creating a renewables giant: the rise of national champions in India's solar sectorSimran Keshwani, Macquarie University |
|-------------------------------------|---|---|--|--|--|---|

LUNCH BREAK (30 minutes)

[Lunch Activity: “Open Book Exam”: The Routledge Handbook of Global Development (28) Part I: Q and A session]

Kearrin Sims, James Cook University & Susan Engel, University of Wollongong

|                                    |  |  |   |   |   |   |
|------------------------------------|--|--|---|---|---|---|
| Afternoon1-2:30 | Paper Session:Gender &amp; Development Chair: Nichole Georgeou Feminist or economic approaches to empowerment: why do we keep focusing only on women’s “financial skills”?Annabel Dulhunty, Australian National University “Better practice”: Principles for ‘decolonised’ research on Violence Against WomenSarah Homan, The Equality InstituteLoksee Leung, The Equality Institute Reflections on gender transformative approaches and feminist participatory action research in agricultural development in Northern VietnamRochelle Spencer, Murdoch University | Paper Session:Indigenous Approaches Chair: Francesca Earp Alternative development actors and philanthropic giving from a Papua New Guinean (Melanesian) development perspectiveCathy Bolinga, University of Auckland Harnessing Māori knowledge in development to address the problem of plasticSiaan Mackie, The University of Auckland The Malaita LABU: Learning about and from Indigenous Solomon Islands sacred spaces of people-encountersKabini Sanga, Wellington, New Zealand/ Victoria University of Wellington | Panel: Understanding Diaspora Development - Lessons from Australia and the Pacific Chair: Philippa Smales Transnational Economic Engagements: The Africa-Australia NexusMuhammad Dan Suleiman, University of Western Australia Pacific Diaspora Humanitarianism: Diasporic PerspectivesJeevika Vivekanathan Diaspora Peacebuilding Through Inter-Ethnic Harmony: The South Sudanese and Sri Lankan Diasporas in AustraliaAtem Atem, Australian National University Diaspora Policy: A Missing Plank in Australia’s Multicultural Policy PortfolioMelissa Phillips, Western Sydney University | Panel: Crisis and Change in Un/Doing Development Chair: Brooke Wilmsen Redoing development: Belt and Road as Cognitive EmpireKearrin Sims, James Cook University Kabalen Lipata: the Gendered Implications of the COVID-19 Pandemic on Women Microfinanciers in Sri LankaNedha de Silva, Monash University | Paper Session:Aid Approaches Persuasive Role of the ‘Singapore Model’ as Neoliberal Urban Imaginary in Post-Bifurcated State of Andhra Pradesh, IndiaSiddhartha Darla, Indian Institute of Technology Bombay Decolonising International Development: The view from the Majority WorldSalmah Eva-Lina Lawrence, IWDA (International Women’s Development Agency) | Paper Session:Health &amp; Development Chair: Nidhi Wali Microfinance and Health improvements: Alternative development case studies from India and PakistanSeemab Khalid, University of CanberraDanish Ahmad, University of Canberra Framing Global Health Justice: The Case of the TRIPS WaiverJae-Eun Noh, Australian Catholic University COVID-19 in the Pacific IslandsGordon Nanau, University of South PacificCharles Hawksley, University of WollongongEdward P Wolfers, University of Wollongong |
|------------------------------------|--|--|---|---|---|---|

AFTERNOON TEA BREAK (30 minutes)

|                                  |  |   |  |   |  |  |
|----------------------------------|--|---|--|---|--|--|
| Late Afternoon3-4:30 | Panel:Dismantling power: People with disabilities as active researchers and research participants Chair: Elisabeth Jackson Speakers:Ekawati LiuMataafa Faatino Utumapu,Annika Tierney LemisioElena JenkinNelly Caleb | Paper Session:Indigenous Approaches Chair: Charles Hawksley 'Destroying Nature to Save it? Tracing Development and Resource Extraction in Northeast India (55)Binita Kakati, Humboldt University Sankofa? An Appraisal of development approaches in and of Africa (39)Matthew Mabefam, University of Melbourne The Free Papua Movement and recent developments in West Papua's struggle for liberation (35)Julian McKinlay King, PhD Candidate, University of Wollongong | Workshop: Third Space Arts-based Youth Development Work: Towards Decolonising Praxis Sarah Williams, Deakin UniversityGreg Morriss, Mahana Culture | Plenary Panel:Doings and Undoings in Communication for Development and Social Change: how this field is shaping development work through creativity, engagement and content creation Panel co-Chairs: Valentina Baú &amp; Heather Horst Creative approaches for designing and understanding impact in international developmentVerena Thomas, Queensland University of TechnologyJackie Kauli, Queensland University of Technology Voice, Participation and Sustainability: C4D&amp;SC challenges and solutions through the pandemicJo Elsom, ABC International DevelopmentVipul Khosla, ABC International DevelopmentPrashanth Pillay, ABC International Development Doings and Undoings in CSC teaching and research—experiences of the UQ Centre for Communication and Social ChangePradip Thomas, Centre for Communication for Social Change, University of QueenslandElske van de Fliert, Centre for Communication for Social Change, University of Queensland Storytelling technology rewrites the development gameRebekah Kofoed, ChildFund AustraliaAiyana Merlo, S1T2 | Paper Session:Aid Approaches Chair: Nidhi Wali Decentralisation and Provision of Pro-poor Services in Ghana: Has the Promises of Decentralised Governance been Delivered?Seregius Be-ere, RMIT University, Melbourne The unsung heroes of development: Understanding university-community engagement in the protracted refugee situation in KenyaValentine Mukuria, Western Sydney University Value of Stakeholder Engagement in International Aid and DevelopmentMuchiri Machuki, Excelsia CollegeIan Eddie, Excelsia CollegeJane Njuru - KCA UniversityFredrick Githui – KCA UniversityMichael Gathiri, Palladium International | Paper Session:Localisation Chair: Kearnin Sims Localisation and collaboration of research in practiceAiden Craney, La Trobe University Add communities and stir? Community engagement in international development discourse and practiceDeborah Cummins, Bridging Peoples |
|----------------------------------|--|---|--|---|--|--|

EVENING DINNER BREAK (2 HOURS 30 MINUTES)

VIDEOS & PRESENTATIONS FROM SPONSORS

|                          |  |   |  |  |   |  |
|--------------------------|--|---|--|--|---|--|
| Evening7-830 | Discussion Round Table:Leadership in Hidden Spaces: Sharing stories of Disability Activism in Indonesia (UK) Chair: Claire Mcloughlin, Developmental Leadership Program Speakers:Ekawati Liu, Bandung Independent Living CenterNur Syarif Ramadhan, Foundation for Indonesia's Differently-Abled Movement for Equality (Yayasan PerDIK)Antoni Tsaputra, Padang State UniversityLaura Lesmana Wijaya, Pusbisindo (Indonesia Sign Language Center) | Workshop:Wellbeing and Indigenous communities- What can we learn? Binita Kakati, Balipara Foundation | Paper Session:Arts-based Research Methodologies Chair: Nichole Georgeou "Diaspora"- A poetic expressionJeevika Vivekananthan, Deakin University Using Intersubjective Fiction to imagine alternative futures in Sri Lanka: collaborative storytelling as a pluralist approach to transitional justiceCymbeline Buhler, Western Sydney University | Paper Session:Climate &amp; Disaster Recovery Chair: Susan Engel Enduring the cost of living with floods: Traces or tales of displaced faces from eroding island: A case study of Brahmaputra valleyChetry Bikash, University of Cape Town Patriarchal Bargaining in Disaster Recovery and Reconstruction: Women's Experiences from the Macapaya Community in the PhilippinesNiki Graziella Baroy, University of New South WalesJoyce Wu, University of New South Wales Role of collaboration in building the adaptive capacity of NGOs to manage humanitarian crises: a case study from NepalNirupama Ghimire, Nepal/Independent ResearcherSristi ShresthaKaushal Sapkota | Panel:Development, Progress &amp; Freedom in Bangladesh Chair: Mubashar Hasan Charting the Economic Progress and Political Regression in BangladeshJyoti Rahman, Australian National University Politics and Narratives of Mega Development Projects in BangladeshMaha Mirza, independent researcher Manufacturing Consent, Silencing Dissent: The Case of Academic Freedom in BangladeshKajalie Shehreen Islam, University of Dhaka | Paper Session:Peace, Security &amp; Development Nexus Chair: Charles Hawksley Grappling with decoloniality in peacebuilding: the local, traditional hierarchies, normativity and transformationAnthony Ware, Deakin UniversityVicki-Ann Ware, Deakin University Policing and gender transformation in Pakistan: Empowering women in establishing peace and security: Assessing the critical role of women in establishing peace and securityMuhammad Abbas, RMIT UniversityVandra Harris, RMIT UniversityRaymond Shuey, Strategic Safety Solutions Human Rights and Development Nexus in IranMehdi Zakerian, Islamic Azad University, Sciences and Research Branch, Tehran, Iran |
|--------------------------|--|---|--|--|---|--|

Friday Day 2: 8 July

|                    | Stream 1   | Stream 2  | Stream 3  | Stream 4  | Stream 5   | Stream 6   |
|--------------------|------------|---|---|---|--|--|
| Morning9-10:30 | No session | Discussion Round Table: Humanitarian Engineering: Weaving Engineering and Development for Impact Chair: Jeremy Smith, Australian National University Speakers:Jeremy Smith, Australian National UniversityScott Daniel, University of Technology SydneyAndrew Dansie, University of New South WalesAaron Opdyke, University of Sydney ONLINEANDFACE-TO-FACE Western Sydney UniversityParramatta City Campus 161-169 Macquarie StParramattaLevel 9 | Paper Session:Agriculture Policy Chair: Joyce Wu International donors as drivers of agriculture policies in Ghana and impacts for local smallholder farmers James Boafo, Kwame Nkrumah University of Science and TechnologyKristen Lyons, University of Queensland Complex policies for complex issues: Policy convergence for women's empowerment in agriculture in West Bengal Sophie Lountain, University of South AustraliaBethany Cooper, University of South AustraliaLin Crase, University of South AustraliaMichael Burton, University of Western Australia Food security and small holder farming in Pacific Island countries and territories: vulnerabilities and adaptation Nichole Georgeou, Western Sydney UniversityCharles Hawksley, University of WollongongNidhi Wali, Western Sydney UniversitySophie Lountain, University of South Australia | Panel: Checking the Overseas Development Aid Agendas: Evidence from Ghana Chair: Charles Hawksley Sajal Roy, Centre for Social Impacts, University of New South WalesNoble Narteh Tagoe, University of New South WalesAshish Kumar Singh, National Research UniversityArunima Kishore Das, Western Sydney University | Paper Session:Development Practice Chair: Valentine Mukuria Critical reflections on attempts to decolonise practice in Rakhine State Myanmar Anthony Ware, Deakin University Unlearning conventional fieldwork practices and its implications for meaningful community-based research through online engagement Kirstin Kreyscher, Deakin UniversityNabreesa Murphy, University of Melbourne Decolonising Asset-based CD? Tensions, trials and successes in "handing over the stick" in Rakhine State, Myanmar Vicki-Ann Ware, Deakin University | Paper Session:Communication Chair: Valentina Baú Towards a new strategic communication framework in development Bhupesh Joshi, University of New South Wales Rethinking Development Communication in the time of Pandemic: Reflections on Community Radio Strategies for Community Engagement S M Shameem Reza, University of Dhaka The use of community radio to promote adoption of Climate Smart farming technologies among smallholder farmers in Kenya Enock Mac'Ouma, University of New South Wales |

COFFEE BREAK (30 minutes)

[Activity: "Open Book Exam": The Routledge Handbook of Global Development (28) Part II: Trivia session]

Kearrin Sims, James Cook University & Susan Engel, University of Wollongong

|   |   |  |                          |  |   |   |
|---|---|--|--------------------------|--|---|---|
| Mid-Morning11-12:30  | Paper Session: Disability &amp; Development Chair: Nichole Georgeou Localising disability inclusive practice: challenges, achievements and levers of changeHelen Fernandes, Tearfund AustraliaPhakhinda Khanthavilay, RMIT A Qualitative Exploration of the Social, Economic, and Political Dimensions of Disability within Primary Education: The Case of Inclusive Development in UgandaRebecca Tamusuza Nalwanga, University of Melbourne SDGs and disability inclusive development: what should we be thinking about on the next round?Retselistsoe Monne, University of CapetownKaren Soldatic, Western Sydney University | Paper Session: Humanitarian Practice Chair: Garry Stevens Flood and Renewable Energy Humanitarian EngineeringResearch: Lessons from Aggitis, Greece and Dhuskun, NepalSpyros Schismenos, Western Sydney UniversityGarry J. Stevens, Western Sydney University Nichole Georgeou, Western Sydney UniversitySurendra Shrestha, Western Sydney University Humanitarians at homeDaniel McAvoy, Deakin UniversityLuke Bearup, Deakin UniversityAnnie Ingram | No Session | Paper Session: Development Practice Chair: Valentine Mukuria A reflection on faith and religion as a key asset in development: lessons from HIV/AIDS and Ebola as applied to the COVID-19 pandemicSonja Krivacic, University of New South WalesAnthony Zwi, University of New South Wales Laudable Relations: some reflections on working with international NGOsPatrick Kilby, Australian National University A case study on blended reporting phenomenon: A comparative analysis on application of contemporary voluntary reporting frameworks and standards: GRI, IR, SASB, and CDPKuntal Goswami (CQU, CDU &amp; ACSMRI)Md Kazi Saidul Islam (CQU)Winton Evers, EcoProfit | Paper Session: Lessons Learned Chair: Izabela Watts Developments in the Global South Countries: How much have we learned?Salma Ahmed, Victoria Institute of Strategic Economic Studies (VISES), Victoria University "Amartya Sen and Paulo Freire - What can emancipatory development learn from them?"Bill Walker, Deakin University | Panel: Market-led development in Cambodia: tensions in transition to "long term development" Chair: Isaac Lyne The human right to water and safe drinking water for all: problematic tensions manifest within a social business approach in CambodiaIsaac Lyne, Western Sydney University Institute for Culture and Society Estimation of Pollution Load in Cambodia's Garment IndustryVibol San, Royal University of Phnom Penh Faculty of Development Studies Pathways to Advance Agroecology Towards Market-Driven Development in CambodiaDr Phanith Chou, Royal University of Phnom Penh Faculty of Development Studies |
| Afternoon1-2:30      | Closing Keynote Address: Professor Meghna Guhathakurta,Executive Director, Research Initiatives, Bangladesh  |  |                          |  |   |   |
| Late Afternoon3-4:30 | DSAA Annual General Meeting followed by Q and A session Both hosted byKearrin Sims, Interim President DSAA, James Cook University   |  |                          |  |   |   |