

What makes a strong ADP Application?

- Clear, convincing and straightforward
- Concise summary
- Relevant to strategic directions of University and School/Institute
- Clearly outlined and achievable outcomes
- Sufficient detail to show thoughtfulness in preparation
- Realistic budget and timelines
- Strong support from Dean/Director
- Clear program integrated into the project
- Clear individual career benefit
- Strategic relationship being built
- Comprehensive support letters stating the exact nature of the program and the depth of the engagement being undertaken
- Being realistic as to what can be achieved