

Western Sydney University/Campbelltown Hospital

Conjoint Research Forum

Monday 10 September 2018

12:00 midday – 1:00 pm

Macarthur Clinical School, Campbelltown Hospital

Lecture Theatre, Ground Floor, Parkside Crescent, Campbelltown

(directions: entrance via bridge from car park into the ground floor lecture theatre entrance)

PROGRAM
Time	Presentations	Presenter
12:00 – 12:05	Welcome & Research update Key points: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Building research capacity and collaborations - Embedding research within the MD program - Role of PhD and Masters students - Building clinician led research and clinical trials 	Dr David Mahns Director, Research Engagement School of Medicine, WSU
12:05 – 12:20	Selecting an Appropriate Clinical Trial Management System (CTMS) As a senior lecturer, within the School of Computing, Engineering and Mathematics; I am teaching, managing projects and conducting applied research in areas that bring together IT and other sectors such as healthcare. Currently, I am leading the IT development tasks of a fully-online trial named 'Maintain Your Brian' funded by NHMRC and led by UNSW. This project has paved way to research into various online technologies that can be used to measure the health of a person and seamless integration of diverse software systems into a single system.	Dr Anupama Ginige Senior Lecturer in Health Informatics School of Computing Engineering and Mathematics Western Sydney University, Australia  IT Lead ACCD: Australian Consortium for Classification Development University of Sydney
12:25 – 12:40	Administrative and Claims data: What Are They Good For? Federico is a health economist and modeller who is working with both public and private sector organizations on projects that apply health analytics to the solution of problems of interest to industry. Examples include analysis of the effect of physical activity on hospital costs, the analysis of over and under-utilization of MBS services, the impact of coding quality on hospital revenues and the evaluation of health care homes.	Associate Professor Federico Girosi Population Health, School of Medicine Western Sydney University Chief Scientist and Director of Research Digital Health CRC
12:45	Launch: Campbelltown & Camden Hospital Research Plan
13:00	Close	Prof Annemarie Hennessy

Buffet style light lunch provided