Master of Human Resource Management

This course equips graduates to work in the fields of human resource management.

Key functional areas are considered within a strategic and contextualised framework. This education builds the necessary knowledge base for working in employment relations, but the emphasis is knowledge in action, as inspired by the Australia Human Resource Institute's capabilities for HR professionals and Western Sydney Graduate Attributes designed to secure success.

Students acquire the skills, knowledge and understanding of the challenges of managing people strategically in complex and turbulent environments. The course equips graduates with the ability to analyse and address a changing business environment, appropriate for careers in Australia and internationally.

The Master of Human Resource Management provides an avenue for industry professionals to expand and enrich their knowledge of contemporary HR practices and challenges, thus empowering the delivery of better business solutions.

ACCREDITATION

The Master of Commerce (HRM) is accredited by the Australian Human Resources Institute (AHRI). Accreditation means that the program has effective quality assurance and that learning addresses the Model of Excellence of the AHRI, derived from international research on HR competencies.
