

Pharmacies participating in the study investigating the effect of a natural topical treatment on cold sores are listed below. Please attend one of the participating pharmacies as soon as possible, as you need to attend the pharmacy within 48 hours of your cold sore starting. You do not need to call ahead or make an appointment, just mention this study to one of the pharmacy staff.

If you would like to discuss the study with a member of the NICM research team, please email the clinical trial coordinator at coldsoretrial@westernsydney.edu.au.
