EDITORS MESSAGE

The editor and staff of this magazine (all one of us), wish to pay tribute and acknowledgement to the following people:

Peter Heimanis	: For Proof reading.
Bernard Dunn	: For his contribution to the photographic section of this magazine.
Greg McGurr	: For "Science Profiles #1 and #2".
Paul Mackie	: For "Science Profile #3".
Michael Mangion	: For bringing in his old school magazine (It gave me the idea for "Genesis").
Dr. P. Leverett	: For his thumbs up to produce this magazine.

Students and staff (Nepean College of Advanced Education: Transfer Course)
For your witty, brilliant, funny, and in most cases stupid quotes; which inspired me to put this magazine together.

This magazine has been compiled for the enjoyment of anyone who wishes to read it; especially those who either did or taught the transfer course.

GENESIS *0

In the beginning there was nothing, a perpetual emptiness.

"What a boring place," said God. I'll have to liven things up".
"Let there be light," he said, as some Solo poviied down his chin.

With a big Flash *1 the heavenly body was created. The sun at the centre and the rest of the universe revolving around it *2.

A day had passed.

God was not fully impressed with his new creation, so he set about creating turmoil in one corner of the solar system. He chose a cold, dark, desolate, uninhabited location; situated somewhere in the milky way, this he called earth.

"Let the crust part and make way for Water."*3 With these words he set the lithospheric plates in motion. Upon doing so he upset the dymanic equilibrium in which the earth had been existing (since the previous day).

The second day had passed.

What God saw was good, but still empty.

"Let there be life," he bellowed in his thunderous voice*4 Thus the unicellular micro organisms were created, which would reproduce and populate the earth. (Evolution is such along and tedious process, and for simplicity we will say).

The third day had passed.

In his almighty wisdom, God knew that if things were left as they were (unchanged), he would again get bored; with that he created mother nature.

God bestowed upon her the job of continually redecorating earth, so that when be glanced at it from time to time*5 it would not look the same old dreary place.

The fourth day had passed.

During the ensuing two days, the B.L.F. and the A.I.U. had a demarcation dispute, which halted all production*6.

The fifth and sixth days had passed.

On the seventh day God created Peter and Kris*7. To Peter he gave the power of knowledge, so that he may explain to his future generations the complexities of their environment. While in a jovial mood God created Kris, so that future generations of Peters*8 could have an inferior, intelligent enough to claim to be an equal.

After such a simple task of creating Peter and Kirs, God had plenty of time to rest.

The Begining Of The END.

- *0. A true account; taken from the annals of history.
- *1. Some corners of the scientific community are still split over this issue. The fact that it may well have been a big bang has only been theorised, but not as yet proven.
- *2. After great deliberation the Catholic Church excommunicated Galileo Galeli. Who while trying to make a meagre living as an astronomer/inventor, stated that it was the earth that revolved around the sun and not vice versa. This was inconceivable to the Catholic Church who stood by the belief that God created the earth first, then the rest of the universe.
- *3. In a latter stage of history, Moses tried to do the same thing but only succeeded in parting the water, and killing a whole stack of innocent Egyptians who tried to follow them to the Promised Land.
- *4. At this point in time he could speak as loud as he wanted too, because there weren't any anti-noise pollution laws around.
- *5. Since time has no meaning to God this may take anything between 0.000 000 000 000 000 001 seconds (time for a recoil of an atomic nucleus) to 5,700 years (half life of carbon).
- *6. God contracted the B.L.F. to affix a massive artwork (which he had obtained from a Bohemian artdealer somewhere in the andromeda Nebula) to the centre of Terra Australis.

The A.I.U. believing the work to be theirs placed a black ban on any B.L.F. dealings, thus creating havoc for two days; by which time God had sidestepped both the B.L.F. and the A.I.U., and had the artwork dumped in place by the delivery van.

The work of art remained nameless for eons, until the nineteenth century when an unimaginative explorer named it after himself calling it Ayres Rock.
- *7. See Science Profile #1 and #2.
- *8. With the power of knowledge, Peter was able to invent new and imaginative names for his offspings (like Mark and Wendy).

TYPICAL EFFECT OF ALCOHOL ON BEDROOM BEHAVIOUR

One Ounce of Alcohol. Little effect. Head still clear, breath not bad, Pulse, breathing and liver normal. Can still satisfy partner.

Two to Three Ounces. Still pretty much know what your there for but somehow it doesn't matter. You're growing relaxed, almost tranquill. You don't complain when partner tries to sell you a raffle ticket. Sense of humor still crisp (fashioning a monocle by holding a biscuit to your eye strikes you as unbearably funny).

Four Ounces. Minor problem differentiating between bed and floor. Hope partner doesn't notice. Growing feeling of queasiness vanishes when you have a snag. Changing position brings it back, however, and you suddenly become sick. Partner is gracious and pretends not to notice. Curious urge to boil the bed.

Five to Six Ounces Still in control, but ability to perform simple sexual tasks such as drooling and moaning impeded by blinding headache. One of you had an orgasm but you can't remember who. Vision and tactile sensitivity slightly distorted. Cannot locate partner except by listening for voice.

Eight to Nine Ounces Tongue feels like luncheon meat. Though functionally dead, you find the concept of playing a wind instrument by holding it up to a fan profoundly fascinating. Unaware that partner has left, you begin a heated argument with the pillow over who should go for drinks.

From New Perspectives on the relationship between alcohol and silly behaviour. Dr. S. Hancock. PHd. Dip.PISSed (Carlton Brewery).

FARANOID EYES

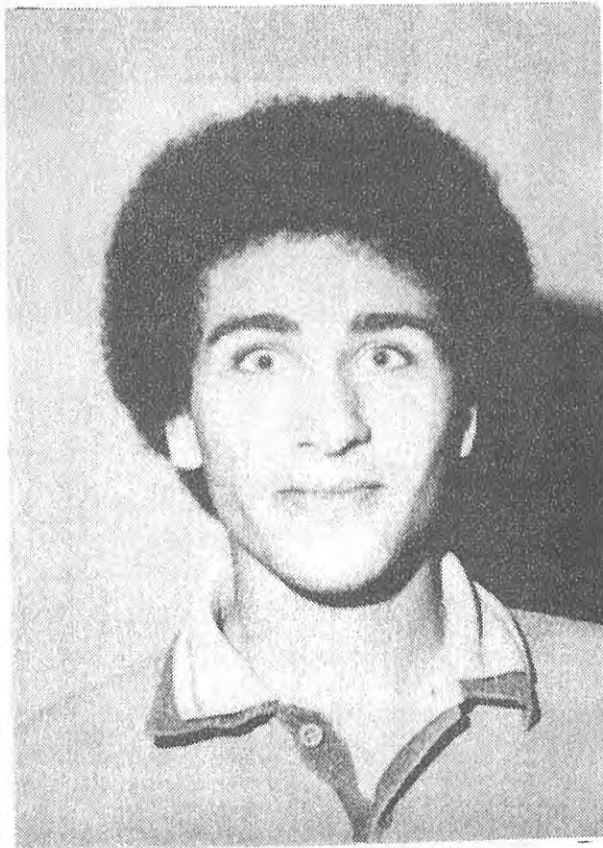

button your lip and dont let your shield slip take a fresh grip on your bullet proof mask and if they try to break down your disguise with their questions
you can hide hide hide behind peramoid eyes

you put on your brave face and slip over the road for a jar
fixing your grin as you casually lean on the bar laughing too loud at the rest of the world with the boys in the crowd
you hide hide hide behind petrified eyes
the pie in the sky may turn out to be miles too high
so hide hide hide
...behind blue and mild eyes.

H O R O S C O P E

Cancer.

Cancerians are extremely sensitive and sympathetic beings, believing in strong family ties and lasting friendships. You are a pushover possessing a basic weak personality. Most cancerians are losers, you'll probably end up a begger.

Leo.

A born leader you are noble, affectionate and big-hearted only when it suits your goals. Leo's are arrogant, insufferable snobs, pushy and hate criticism of any kind. Most Leo's end up having total mental breakdowns, and end up in a funny farm.

Virgo

Virgos are orderly, logical and possess highly ethical codes. You make great chemists and quality control experts. Your nit-picking drives everybody nuts. Virgos have a primary attitude, you are cold and especially timid, scared of everything especially sex. You are the worst lover in the zodiac.

Libra

You are a charmer, and strive for harmony, you cooperate with anybody which makes you easily ripped off and manipulated. You place too much emphasis on sexual pleasures. Libra women are very easy and end up as hookers. Libra men do the dishes.

Scorpio

Scorpios are resourceful hard nosed buggers and very shrewd in business. Insults roll off your back like sweat. You get your way through dishonesty. You are power hungry and totally lack ethics. Most Scorpios end up murdered with knives in their backs.

Sagitararius.

You are jovial easy going and most sincere. Sagitararians are warm and humorous and suffer from foot-in-mouth disease. Because you lack true ability you rely on luck and the supernatural for success. People laugh at Sagitararians, you are a habitual drunk or dope fiend.

Capricorn.

Capricorns are very ambitious and reach the top of the ladder in a flooding manner. You admire and respect authority. Being self centred you expect everybody to believe what you think. Capricorns are terrific bores and must keep moving or a dog will mistake you for a tree.

Aquarius.

You are a rebel with a progressive attitude. You are also inventive and very intellectual, your interests are very wide-spread which makes you a real scatterbrain. Aquarians are careless and never learn by their mistakes. You are the original clutz.

Pisces

Pisces have a weird imagination and are idealistic about love and beauty. You are the most sensitive of all the signs, and are over emotional. Pisces are misfits, are spaced out and are easily taken advantage of - a real sucker. You'll end up on social security.

Gemini

You have diverse personalities and a wide range of objectives. You are very original, adventurous and possess a superb mind. You intend to be strange. Most Gemini's are either homosexual and/or indulge in crimes of violence and passion. Gemini's usually end up in jail.

Aries.

You are the most impulsive sign of the zodiac. Arians are extremely intelligent and prefer work that gives you a chance for personal advancement. Your self-centred attitude makes it impossible for you to remain faithful to your mate. Your quick tempered and impatient. Nobody likes you.

Taurus.

Taurians are reliable, loyal, and always reach their goal. Your love for beautiful things includes an excess of lovers, all types and sizes. You are a workaholic and will die young. Taurians are earthly critics, and have terrible B.O., eat too much, and pass very continuously.
