INTERNATIONAL CRIMINOLOGY

NEW IN 2018

These courses enable you to investigate a broad range of key issues in international criminology, including the globalisation of crime, international patterns of victimisation, international criminal justice, state crime, corruption, collective violence and transitional justice.

Units you will study include:

- Global Criminology and Human Rights
- Violence, Culture and Criminal Justice
- International Criminal Law
- Development and Security.

Exit points exist within the Masters program for a Graduate Certificate or Graduate Diploma.

CAREER OPPORTUNITIES

As a graduate of one of these degrees you will be prepared for a range of professional, policy and community roles in law enforcement, prosecution, global governance and crime prevention.
