01:58:29 Anupama Ginige: *thoroughly

02:01:07 Janette Perz: So much good work in Aboriginal health occurring across the University. Thank you to the stellar panel of presenters tacking the hard job of describing important research with so little time. Thank you to all who attended (N=92 at our peak – not too shabby for a Friday afternoon!). Thank you to our strict but friendly Chairs, our Indigenous leaders Auntie Kerrie and Fiona, and our fearless, masked leader Annemarie. The biggest thanks are saved for Lorelle and her “Candy-Crush” fingers and tech skills. The Webinar recording, slides, videos will be available soon with details posted in next week’s THRI eNews.

02:01:19 Varalakshmi Sivanesan: Thanks everyone . This session was very useful and informative...

02:01:37 Dr Renu Narchal: Thanks for your great work and presentations! so much knowledge and engagement!

02:02:15 Laretta Luck: Thank you to all the amazing presenters

02:02:15 Annemarie Hennessy: I am soo impressed with the scope and quality of the presentations. I will pass you tremendous efforts on the Professor Michelle Trudget at WSU, who is an apology today . well done all.

02:02:19 Cris Carriage: well done Lorelle -

02:02:25 Rona Pillay: Great presentations all:-)

02:02:30	Colin Ellis:	Thank you everyone
02:02:31	Cathy Kaplun:	Congrats to all presenters Fantastic to hear about these projects happening for the health and wellbeing of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities. Be safe all
02:02:41	rashid:	powerful!!!
02:02:51	Kayla Sale:	thanks everyone
