Declaration

I acknowledge that I will be provided with an identification card that may be used to access certain areas of Western Sydney University campuses including exam rooms.

I understand that this access is for me only and cannot be transferred to another person. The card remains the property of the University and must be carried at all times while on campus and produced or surrendered on request. Failure to comply with these conditions may result in the card being withdrawn and/or action being taken under the exam and non academic misconduct policies. These policies are available at westernsydney.edu.au/policies
