

Partnering for the future of work

Sam Yip

Strategic Relationships Manager
Wesley Training

Do all the good you can
because every life matters

Families and children

Teenagers and young adults

Foster care

Venues and catering

Mental health

Hospitals

Suicide prevention

Housing and accommodation

Disability support

Seniors and aged care

Home care

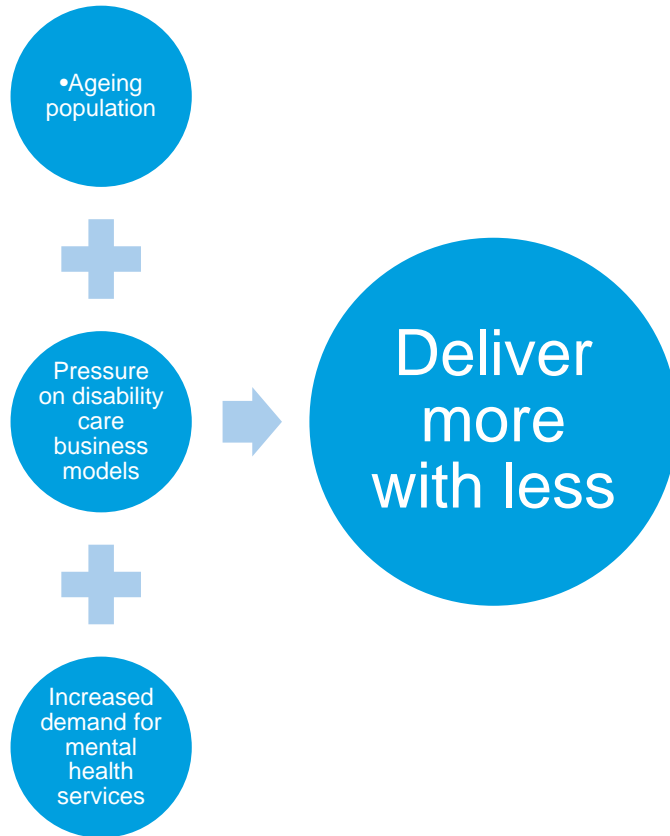

Training and jobs

Do all the good you can
because every life matters

Key community focus areas

- Ageing population
- Pressure on disability care business models
- Increased demand for mental health services

Do all the good you can
because every life matters

Impact on the future of work

- Over-casualisation of workforce
- Demand for multi-disciplinary, flexible, adaptable workers

‘Earlier and Broader’

Do all the good you can
because every life matters

1. Mental Health Workforce Partnership

Do all the good you can
because every life matters

Progress so far

- 105 students in the program
- 20 students placed for:
 - Wesley Operation Hope
 - Wesley Hospitals
 - Wesley Community Hub
 - Wesley Parents Next
 - Wesley Financial Literacy
 - Compeer
 - Youth off the Streets
 - Phoebe House

Partnering to create a platform for growth

- Wesley Mission presence on 3 WSU campuses (student and career support)
- Successful integration of program with university credit (=10 CP elective)
- Further training pathways

2. Collaboration with WSU Careers

- Cert III Individual Support
- Cert III Community Services
- Paid work whilst studying
- Broad offering across all disciplines

‘Earlier and Broader’

Do all the good you can
because every life matters

Natalee's story

- Studying at WSU
- Inspired by her mother who was a carer
- Passionate about AOD rehab work
- Connected to Wesley Mission and the industry

