Western Sydney Airport Social Science Internship and Site Visit

An exclusive venue tour and role for Western Sydney Students only.

As a social science intern and under the guidance of the Western Sydney Airport team, you will have the opportunity to contribute to community engagement and social impact programs.

This paid internship has been carefully positioned for a Western Sydney University student only.

Casual Role. 2-4 days per week over 6 months.

If you are interested in social impact, community engagement and passionate about providing a voice for future Western Sydney community needs – this is a monumental opportunity.

Meet your Manager, and discuss the role in person at a venue site visit.

To further support and encourage students to apply for this amazing opportunity. A venue site visit and application briefing will be provided.

Here you will be greeted and hosted directly by the Community Engagement and Social Impact Manager (your future manager) and Western's Associate Director of Careers, Talent and Organisational Success to discuss the role prior to applying.

Serious candidates are strongly encouraged to attend in order to understand the nature of the role, and experience first hand the excitement of the Western Sydney Airport.

Site Visit and Application Briefing: 19 September 2023
Applications close: 26 September 2023

SAP Australia Internship

SAP Australia is actively looking to hire a dedicated Western Sydney University student to be a part of the STAR Internship program.

Program starts February 2024.

The STAR program is a 2-year program, during which time you will gain experience in different areas. You'll have a dedicated STAR manager to support your personal development and a rotational mentor to guide you as you learn the ropes in each team. You will also have a STAR student mentor to help you find your way around and show you the best bits of the office!

Work on a part-time basis during the academic year with an option to work full-time over the semester break – all paid of course!

Our Western STAR Program candidates will be:

- Studying Degree(s) in Business, perhaps with an IT major although other academic backgrounds will be considered
- Finishing their studies no earlier than end of 2025
- Able to work at least 2 days per week during semester – part of which can be from home.

Applications Close: 3rd September 2023

Workplace Skills Developed Through Unpaid Caregiving

Percentage of respondents reporting improvement in workplace skills gained through unpaid caregiving experiences, by category.

Caregiving skills

Source: Rutgers Center for Women in Business, Rutgers Business School survey of 131 caregivers between April and May 2023

- Domestic and international projects
- Global communication skills
- Consultancy experience

Duration 2 weeks | Workload 12 hrs/wk

Research is showing the increased benefits to employers who hire employees with/ or who have had care-giving responsibilities.

Caregiving could involve caring for children, parents, caring for someone with a disability, long-term illness, or even extend to situations where you may be the primary English translator in your family.

Workplace transferable skills that are directly increased by these responsibilities are listed in graph right.

If you need help translating your experience in caregiving for resumes and corporate work experience – please attend one of our Career Q&A sessions and speak to one of our Career Education Consultants.

SAIEP Program Open

Solve a real-world industry experience project

Program Starts – 18th September 2023.

This 2-week Industry Experience Program will engage International (Offshore & Onshore) students to work in cross-disciplinary teams to deliver real world industry projects with both Australian and global employers (primarily based in India). Students will have the opportunity to enhance their knowledge whilst they collectively develop highly sought after soft skills. The program is also a great way for students to gain valuable experience and fill in gaps on their resumes/profiles to help give them that competitive edge.
