- (a) an Employee;
- (b) the Unions (either separately or together); or
- (c) the University.

- 11.3 An Employee who is a party to a dispute may choose to be assisted or represented by a Representative, who may be an official of the relevant Union, at any stage of the procedures set out in this clause.
- 11.4 With the exception of critical issues of work health and safety, normal work will continue while the procedures set out in this clause are being followed, and a party to a dispute will not take any action to aggravate a matter in dispute. If the dispute relates to the expiry of a fixed-term contract, termination of the contract will be deferred pending resolution of the dispute.
- 11.5 In the first instance, the parties to a dispute must attempt to resolve the matter informally through discussion between the Employee and their Supervisor, unless it is not practicable to do so.
- 11.6 If informal discussions are unsuccessful or impracticable, the Employee must formally notify a dispute to the head of their work unit. If there is a conflict of interest regarding the head of the relevant work unit, the Employee must notify the dispute to the Executive Director, Human Resources, who will then follow the procedures set out in this clause.

Any such meeting must be held within 5 working days of the request being made, unless otherwise agreed. If the parties cannot agree on a dispute resolution process, the process in subclause 11.11 will apply.
- 11.11 Should the dispute not be resolved by the procedures referred to above, or if there is an identified urgent need to resolve the matter, either party to the dispute may refer the dispute to the FWC for conciliation and if necessary, arbitration. If the dispute is arbitrated by the FWC, the parties agree to be bound by a decision made by the FWC, subject to any right of appeal that may arise under the Act.
- 11.12 Nothing in this clause prevents the parties to a dispute from agreeing to refer the matter to a third party other than the FWC for resolution. If this occurs, the parties agree to be bound by the third party's recommendation to resolve the dispute.

- 13.4 An Employee who has previously successfully completed a probationary period will not be placed on probation for any subsequent positions held at the University, unless there is a break in service of more than 12 months.

- 13.8 At least 2 weeks before the end of the probationary period (including any extension), the Employee's Supervisor will conduct a final review and provide the Employee with a final report.

Termination of employment

- 13.9 Subject to compliance with subclauses 13.6 to 13.7, a Supervisor may recommend termination of employment during the probationary period by providing a written report to the Executive Director, Human Resources setting out the reasons for the recommendation.

The Employee will be advised of the Executive Director, Human Resources' recommendation to the Employment Executive Member in writing, together with reasons for the recommendation.
- 13.12 If the Employment Executive Member determines that the Employee's employment is to be terminated, the University will give the Employee 2 weeks' notice or payment in lieu. The notice of termination will be in writing, and include all reasons for the decision.

No further appeal

- 13.14 Where a decision to take action has been made in accordance with this clause, no further appeal can be made within the University. Nothing in this clause will be construed as excluding the jurisdiction of any external court or tribunal which would be competent to deal with the matter.

- 25.6 All Employees up to and including level 10 are required to complete a timesheet covering each 4-week (140 hours) settlement period.

Rates of pay

- 25.7 An ongoing or fixed-term Employee will be paid at the Employee's Base Rate of Pay, and a casual Employee will be paid at the Casual Rate of Pay, for ordinary hours of work. An Employee who works according to a roster will also be paid the relevant shift loading prescribed by this clause in addition to their Base or Casual Rate of Pay.
- 25.8 A part-time Employee who agrees to work hours additional to their weekly contracted hours up to, but not more than, 35 hours in a week or an average of 35 hours a week over a roster period, will be paid at the Employee's Base Rate of Pay for the additional hours worked.
- 25.9 An Employee engaged part-year who agrees to work in their substantive position during a period when they would not normally work, will be paid at the Employee's Base Rate of Pay for any ordinary hours of work.
- 25.10 Hours worked in addition to ordinary hours of work will be overtime.

Rostered hours

- 25.11 An Employee who works according to a roster will be paid the following shift loadings in addition to their Base Rate of Pay or Casual Rate of Pay:

	SHIFT	TIME	LOADING
(a)	early morning shift	starting at or after 4.00am and before 6.00am Monday to Friday	10%
(b)	day shift	starting not earlier than 6.00am and before 10.00am Monday to Friday	nil
(c)	early afternoon shift	finishing at or after 7.00pm Monday to Friday	10%

	SHIFT	TIME	LOADING
(d)	afternoon shift	finishing at or after 9.00pm and before midnight Monday to Friday	12.5%
(e)	night shift	finishing at or after midnight and before 6.00am Monday to Friday	15%
(f)	Saturday	any shift worked between midnight Friday and midnight Saturday	50%
(g)	Sunday	any shift worked between midnight Saturday and midnight Sunday	100%
(h)	permanent night shift	any roster in which shifts are worked which do not rotate or alternate with other or another shift so as to give the employee at least one third of their working time off night shift in each roster period	30% (provided that the loading for Saturday or Sunday will be in substitution for, and not in addition to, this loading)

- 25.12 Work rosters will be posted in a readily accessible place and will indicate the start and finish times of the ordinary hours of work for each shift for each Employee.
- 25.13 An Employee will be given at least 72 hours' notice of a change of shift in a roster, or at least 7 days' notice of a new roster, unless the Employee is replacing another Employee on unplanned absence. If, because of a change of shift or roster, an Employee works on a day the Employee would have otherwise been rostered off, they will be paid overtime for the time worked.
- 25.14 Employees may swap shifts or rosters with the agreement of their Supervisor(s) provided that this does not involve additional shift loadings or overtime.

Changes to regular roster or ordinary hours of work

- 25.15 The University will consult with Employees about changes to their regular roster or ordinary hours of work in accordance the relevant provisions of the Act. Employees may be assisted by a Representative for the purposes of such consultation. In consulting with Employees, the University will:
- (a) provide information to the Employees about the change;
 - (b) invite Employees to give their views about the impact of the change, including any impact in relation to their family or caring responsibilities; and
 - (c) consider any views about the impact of the change that are given by Employees.
- 25.16 Any change to an Employee's regular roster or ordinary hours of work will only be made with the agreement of the Employee concerned, taking into account personal circumstances and obligations under clause 48: Organisational Change.

Overtime

- 25.17 The University may require an Employee to work a reasonable amount of overtime, unless the Employee has reasonable grounds for not doing so.

- 25.18 The University will make all reasonable efforts to give an Employee at least 48 hours' notice of any overtime to be worked.
- 25.19 Overtime rates of pay will be:
- (a) 1.5 times the Base Rate of Pay for the first 2 hours and double the Base Rate of Pay thereafter until the end of the overtime;
 - (b) between midnight Friday and midnight Saturday – 1.5 times the Base Rate of Pay for the first 2 hours and double the Base Rate of Pay thereafter until the end of the overtime, with a minimum payment of 3 hours;
 - (c) between midnight Saturday and midnight Sunday – double the Base Rate of Pay with a minimum payment of 4 hours, except for essential work of feeding animals and watering, when the minimum payment will be 3 hours; and
 - (d) on a public holiday – 2.5 times the Base Rate of Pay with a minimum payment of 4 hours except for essential work of feeding animals and watering, when the minimum payment will be 3 hours.
- 25.20 Overtime should be arranged so that, if reasonably practicable, an Employee will have 10 hours off between work on successive days, except 8 hours will be substituted for 10 hours for overtime worked when changing shift rosters or replacing another Employee who has not reported for work. However:
- (a) if an Employee who works overtime would ordinarily commence work within 10 hours of finishing the overtime, they will not be required to report for work until they have had 10 hours off and will be paid at the Base Rate of Pay for the time they would have normally worked in those ten hours; or
 - (b) if an Employee who works overtime is directed by the University to continue or resume work without having had 10 consecutive hours off, they will be paid at overtime rates of pay until released from duty and then have 10 consecutive hours off and will be paid at the Base Rate of Pay for the time they would have normally worked in those 10 hours.
- 25.21 An Employee who is called back to the University's premises for work after leaving for the day will be paid at the appropriate overtime rate for a minimum of 4 hours. Each call will stand alone. This subclause will not apply if:
- (a) it is customary for an Employee to return for pre-arranged overtime; or
 - (b) the overtime is continuous (subject to a reasonable meal break) with the end or start of the Employee's normal working time.
- 25.22 If an Employee is instructed to work overtime on a day they would normally not have been required to work and on reporting to work finds that no work is available, they will be paid 3 hours' overtime at the overtime rate for that day.
- 25.23 Each day's overtime is calculated separately to the nearest quarter of an hour.
- 25.24 If an Employee is required to work overtime, they will be entitled to payment at the relevant overtime rate(s) specified in subclause 25.19. Overtime will be paid unless the Employee and their Supervisor agree that the Employee will instead accrue time off in lieu of overtime as detailed in subclauses 25.25 to 25.28.

Time off in lieu of overtime

- 25.25 Time off in lieu of overtime will not be unreasonably refused by the University, but must be considered in conjunction with any use of flex-leave.
- 25.26 Time off in lieu of overtime will be equal to the hours that would have been payable. For example, 4 hours' overtime worked at double time is equal to 8 hours' time off in lieu.
- 25.27 An Employee may accrue a maximum of 35 hours' time off in lieu of overtime.
- 25.28 Time off in lieu of overtime must be taken:
- (a) at a time mutually agreed between an Employee and their Supervisor; and
 - (b) within 3 months from the time the overtime was worked, or payment at the appropriate overtime rate will be made.

26. STANDARD WORKING HOURS

- 26.1 Standard working hours are ordinary hours that are set and regular, and include an unpaid meal break under clause 27: Meal Breaks.
- 26.2 Standard hours of work are equal to 7 hours per day or 35 hours per week, Monday to Friday (pro rata for part-time Employees), and apply to those Employees who elect not to participate in the Flexible Hours of Work Scheme under clause 34: Flexible Hours of Work Scheme.

27. MEAL BREAKS

- 27.1 An Employee will be allowed an unpaid meal break of between 30 minutes and 1 hour per meal unless as otherwise provided in clause 34: Flexible Hours of Work Scheme.
- 27.2 If the University requires an Employee to work any part of their meal break, the time worked will count as part of the Employee's ordinary hours of work.
- 27.3 An Employee will not be required to work more than 5 hours without an unpaid meal break, however if the Employee works according to a roster they may, by agreement with their Supervisor, take a paid meal break provided they remain available for duty.

PART G – WORKLOADS

28. WORKLOADS

Principles

- 28.1 It is in the interests of the University and its Employees to ensure that workloads are realistic and achievable within ordinary hours of work. The University does not encourage or condone a workplace culture that requires staff to work excessive hours. Whilst recognising that reasonable overtime may, from time to time, be required to meet operational needs, it is the responsibility of:
- (a) managers and Supervisors to ensure that unreasonable expectations are not made of Employees; and

- (b) Employees to ensure that they are not working excessive hours.
- 28.2 Workload allocation will take into account relevant work health and safety principles, the Employee's level of appointment, work fraction profile, and position description.
- 28.3 Employees will not be required to work unreasonable overtime.
- 28.4 The University will not make workload demands of Employees that are inconsistent with these principles.

Increases to workloads

- 28.5 Potential increases to workloads will be considered as part of the risk assessment process prior to any workplace change, introduction of new workflows and processes, and changes to technical systems and infrastructure.
- 28.6 Where an ongoing increase to workloads is identified as a result of:
 - (a) proposed workplace change, the provisions of clause 48: Organisational Change will apply, and the organisational change plan will identify the risk and outline any steps to mitigate the effect of increased workloads; or
 - (b) the introduction of new technology, infrastructure, workflows or processes that would not be sufficient to trigger a workplace change under clause 48: Organisational Change, the relevant project team or manager will consider the impact on workloads.

Workload allocation

- 28.7 Managers and Supervisors are responsible for ensuring that workloads are fairly and equitably allocated to teams or individuals in consultation with Employees.
- 28.8 Each work area should meet together in at least twice-yearly formal meetings chaired by the manager of the work area, in order to assess collegially and consultatively the work allocation and division of tasks within the group.
- 28.9 Individual workloads are to be discussed and negotiated during performance management reviews and monitored in accordance with subclauses 28.10 and 28.11.
- 28.10 Without disrupting the operation of their work unit, an Employee should be able to:
 - (a) use their flex-time credits as set out in clause 34: Flexible Hours of Work Scheme; and
 - (b) take their annual leave within the limits imposed by clause 35: Annual Leave.

Monitoring workload

- 28.11 Primary indicators of unreasonable workload include:
 - (a) an ongoing need to work excessive hours;
 - (b) unreasonable overtime; and
 - (c) an inability for Employees to clear accrued leave or flex credits.
- 28.12 Managers and Supervisors have a responsibility to:

- (a) monitor and review workload for signs of overwork; and
 - (b) monitor patterns of work and/or total hours worked over a given period of time, leave balances, accrued time in lieu, and flex balances.
- 28.13 The Implementation Committee will monitor overtime, leave balances, accrued time in lieu, and flex credit balances, and may be used as a forum to facilitate consultation on workloads.

Individual and/or work team workload review

- 28.14 If an Employee or work team is concerned about their workload, they may request a workload review through discussion with their Supervisor. If the matter is not satisfactorily resolved through this process, the Employee or work team may escalate the matter to the head of their work unit.
- 28.15 If the matter is not resolved through discussion with the head of the work unit, the Employee or work team may further escalate the matter to the Executive Director, Human Resources (or nominee).
- 28.16 The Executive Director, Human Resources (or nominee) will review the matter and discuss it with the parties involved, before making a determination and communicating the outcome to the parties.
- 28.17 If a person is required to deal with a matter under this clause on behalf of the University but a potential conflict of interest exists (whether identified by an Employee or otherwise), the University will nominate an alternate person to deal with the matter.

PART H – CAREER PLANNING AND DEVELOPMENT

29. CAREER PLANNING AND DEVELOPMENT

- 29.1 The University will:
- (a) provide Employees with a range of centrally-funded training and development opportunities through the Office of Human Resources, and externally delivered programs related to the University's work;
 - (b) increase the number of centrally funded professional development opportunities provided as at the date of commencement of this Agreement; and
 - (c) take reasonable steps to widely advertise all centrally funded professional development opportunities to Employees.
- 29.2 The University will undertake an annual review of University professional development programs offered and report on their uptake to the Implementation Committee. The University intends to spend no less than $4,600,000 per annum on professional staff development over the nominal life of this Agreement, and will report expenditure to the Implementation Committee at least twice per calendar year.
- 29.3 The University is committed to providing all Employees with:
- (a) the opportunity to be involved in the planning of their work, and to develop personal skills that complement their work unit's goals;

- (b) the opportunity to access a personal career development plan that will lead to identifiable career opportunities; and
 - (c) equity of access to training and development opportunities.
- 29.4 The University will provide opportunities for career progression by:
 - (a) advertising all ongoing and fixed-term vacancies on the University website. Vacancies for positions at level 6 or below will be advertised internally in the first instance; and
 - (b) appointing Employees, other than casual Employees, to temporarily perform the duties of a higher classified position in accordance with clause 31: Higher Duties.
- 29.5 Career and development opportunities for an individual Employee should initially be identified in discussion with their Supervisor, and may include:
 - (a) on-the-job coaching;
 - (b) attendance at training courses, programs or conferences;
 - (c) networking and mentor relationships;
 - (d) temporarily performing duties of a higher classified position;
 - (e) job rotation, secondments, and employee exchange programs;
 - (f) research or project work;
 - (g) support for ongoing accredited education; and
 - (h) involvement in internal or external committees or University governance.
- 29.6 The University will make funding available to support agreed career development plans.

Annual Planning and Career Development Program

- 29.7 An Employee and their Supervisor will meet at least annually to discuss the planning goals and objectives of their work unit for the next 12 months and to clarify how they relate to the Employee.
- 29.8 The Employee and their Supervisor will complete a standard planning and career development document setting out the agreed work plan and career development program for the Employee. The Supervisor will:
 - (a) provide the Employee with an opportunity to meet and discuss goals, identify work priorities, and clarify expectations;
 - (b) assist the Employee in identifying career skill development needs in their current position and career development opportunities;
 - (c) provide the Employee with guidance and constructive feedback;
 - (d) identify and support higher duties opportunities as career development; and
 - (e) implement, where possible, an agreed career development program.

- 29.9 If an Employee is reasonably of the opinion that they are not being given training or development opportunities, they should raise the matter with their Supervisor in the first instance. If the matter is not resolved, the Employee may then raise the matter with the Executive Director, Human Resources or other person nominated by the University for resolution.
- 29.10 The University will consult with Employees on the development of the standard planning and career development process.

Reimbursement of course fees

- 29.11 The University may reimburse an ongoing or fixed-term Employee's course fees for study that is directly related to the Employee's current position, or may reasonably be expected to be utilised within the University in the future.
- 29.12 If the University requires an Employee to undertake training, it will be regarded as part of the Employee's duties and count as time worked.

Study leave

- 29.13 An ongoing or fixed-term Employee who is undertaking an approved course of formal study or training related to their work is entitled to:
- (a) up to 5 hours' paid leave per week; and
 - (b) additional paid leave to attend examinations.

This time may be accrued to a maximum of 35 hours in any semester.

- 29.14 Arrangements for taking leave are to be agreed between the Employee and their Supervisor.

Multiskilling

- 29.15 The University may direct an Employee to perform work and/or use equipment as may reasonably be required having regard to the Employee's existing skill base, provided that the Employee is properly trained and licensed, and the skill competency levels required fall within the Employee's classification level.
- 29.16 Any direction given by the University under this clause will be consistent with the University's responsibility to provide a healthy and safe working environment.

30. POSITION CLASSIFICATION AND BROADBANDING

- 30.1 Every position will be classified in accordance with the Position Descriptors set out in Schedule 4.
- 30.2 Positions will be classified at the level that most accurately reflects the work to be performed, taking into account the duties, responsibilities, and accountabilities of the position.
- 30.3 The following general principles apply to classification decisions:
- (a) all positions are subject to these procedures, irrespective of funding source or availability;
 - (b) the classification will be of the position not the occupant;

- (c) classification decisions will be based on an assessment of the documentation of positions against the Position Descriptors, however the University may also choose to utilise a supplementary job evaluation methodology to undertake classifications;
 - (d) the Position Descriptors will be applied consistently across positions; and
 - (e) special regard will be given to pay equity principles.
- 30.4 A position will not ordinarily be reclassified within 12 months of its last reclassification review, unless a significant restructure of the work area has taken place.

Classification methodology

- 30.5 Every position at levels 1 to 10 will have a position description developed within the context of the work unit.
- 30.6 A position description will clearly and comprehensively describe the specific purpose, key functions, core duties and activities, and the various skills required of the position as set out in the Position Descriptors. Generic position descriptions are to be avoided where possible.
- 30.7 Employees will undertake the responsibilities outlined in the position description applicable to their position. An Employee will not be required to undertake duties that are not in their position description on an ongoing basis unless the Employee and their Supervisor have agreed that an application for reclassification will be made. Any such application should be discussed immediately with the Office of Human Resources and lodged as soon as practicable. If the application is successful, the Employee will be back paid to the date the application was lodged with the Office of Human Resources.
- 30.8 If a position is one of a group of like positions across an organisational area, any changes to that position description will be considered within the context of the whole area. This will not, however, prevent the position from being considered for classification as a separate position.
- 30.9 Classification will be undertaken by persons from the Office of Human Resources who are trained in formal classification processes and nominated by the Executive Director, Human Resources, or other person nominated by the University.

Reclassification of existing positions

- 30.10 The University will reclassify positions using the classification methodology outlined in this clause. Personal or gender identifying information about the position holder will not be used in assessing a position for reclassification.
- 30.11 If there is a significant change identified for a vacant position, a revised position description will be created. Any change to a vacant position will be considered within the context of its effect on related positions.
- 30.12 An Employee or their Supervisor may at any time initiate discussions regarding the currency of the Employee's position description and classification level.
- 30.13 A reclassification submission can be made by:
- (a) the Employee;
 - (b) the Employee's Supervisor; or
 - (c) the relevant Union.

- 30.14 A submission should ordinarily be made as soon as practicable after it has been identified that there has been a material change to the Employee's duties so that an Employee is not undertaking additional work for an indefinite period.
- 30.15 If the Employee believes their existing position description is incorrectly classified and the Supervisor confirms that the position description is accurate, the position description will be submitted to the unit manager for their endorsement to forward the position description to Office of Human Resources for reclassification. A request for reclassification must include the following information:
- (a) when the Employee's duties changed;
 - (b) reasons justifying the change in the Employee's duties;
 - (c) how the changed duties align with the requirements of the relevant work unit;
 - (d) how duties are being undertaken if they have been removed from the existing position description; and
 - (e) reasons justifying any delay in applying for reclassification.
- 30.16 If there is no agreement between an Employee, their Supervisor, and the unit manager with appropriate University delegation regarding the currency of the Employee's position description, the Employee may make a reclassification submission directly to the head of the Employee's work unit. If the head of unit supports the submission, it will be forwarded to the Office of Human Resources for reclassification.
- 30.17 If the head of the Employee's work unit does not support the reclassification submission, they will advise the Office of Human Resources of the reasons for their decision, provided that a submission can only be declined on the following grounds:
- (a) the submission does not accurately describe the work being done; and/or
 - (b) the work is not required to be done.
- The Office of Human Resources will advise the Employee of the reasons in writing, and the Employee will continue to perform work in accordance with their position description.
- 30.18 The Office of Human Resources will deal with a reclassification submission equitably, confidentially, and where possible, within 4 weeks of receipt. If there is a delay beyond 4 weeks, the Office of Human Resources will advise the Employee of the circumstances and provide an estimated time for an outcome.
- 30.19 A reclassification submission will result in a position either being reclassified to a higher level or remaining at the same level, and the incumbent will retain the position.
- 30.20 If an occupied position is reclassified to a higher level, the new Salary will be paid from the date the submission was lodged with the head of the Employee's work unit, or from an agreed earlier date. If the higher level work is specified and agreed to commence at a future date, the new Salary will be paid from that future date.
- 30.21 An Employee will be advised of the outcome of their submission in writing by the Office of Human Resources, and will be given reasons if the submission is declined.
- Review
- 30.22 Each Union will nominate up to 2 members to be trained in the classification methodology utilised by the University. These members will form a part of a Classification Review Panel.

30.23 If an Employee disputes the outcome of their reclassification submission, they may apply in writing to the Executive Director, Human Resources for a review of the decision.

30.24 The Executive Director, Human Resources may:

- (a) reclassify the Employee's position, or
- (b) refer the Employee's submission for review to a Classification Review Panel to independently evaluate the position description.

The Executive Director, Human Resources will determine the appropriate classification of the position in accordance with the outcome of those re-evaluations.

30.25 The Classification Review Panel will comprise:

- (a) 1 Union Employee, trained in the appropriate job classification methodology, and nominated by the Implementation Committee; and
- (b) 1 Employee from the Office of Human Resources trained in the appropriate job classification methodology, and who was not on the original evaluation committee.

30.26 If the Classification Review Panel is required to conduct a review under subclause 30.24(b), the Panel may request relevant information about the position from:

- (a) the University;
- (b) the Employee making the submission; and/or
- (c) the Employee's Supervisor;

prior to completing its review.

30.27 The Executive Director, Human Resources will determine the appropriate classification of the position in accordance with the outcome of the Panel review.

30.28 An Employee will be advised of the result of their reclassification submission in writing within 4 weeks of the submission being made to the Executive Director, Human Resources.

30.29 If an Employee who is required to perform additional or changed duties makes a reclassification submission based on the position description being inaccurate and the submission is declined at any stage of the process outlined in this clause, the Employee will not be required to perform additional or changed duties.

30.30 Where a submission under subclause 30.13 results in the reclassification of the Employee's position, then unless otherwise agreed by the University in light of any reasons given justifying delay under subclause 30.15(e), the reclassification and any consequential change in rate of pay will be effective from the date on which the submission was made to the Office of Human Resources.

Broadbanding

30.31 From the date of commencement of this Agreement, the University will not broadband any new position descriptions.

30.32 Broadbanded positions that are occupied at the date commencement of this Agreement will be grandfathered for the period of the occupancy.

- 30.33 Employees who are in broadbanded positions will continue at their current broadbanded level and will be eligible to apply for progression to the higher level within a broadbanded position only when:
- (a) the established requirements for progression are satisfied by the incumbent Employee; and
 - (b) there is ongoing work available at the higher level.
- 30.34 Submission for progression to a higher level must be submitted to Executive Director, Human Resources, through the Employee's Supervisor and endorsed by the head of the Employee's work unit.
- 30.35 An Employee at the lower level of a broadbanded position may access training and development opportunities in accordance with clause 29: Career Planning and Development.
- 30.36 An Employee will not be required to perform work at the higher level if they have not successfully progressed to that level, or are not applying for progression to the higher level within a broadbanded position.

31. HIGHER DUTIES

- 31.1 This clause does not apply to casual Employees.
- 31.2 Higher duties are a temporary measure that can be used to cover staff who are on leave or otherwise absent from duties, or while recruitment action is taking place, and provide a career development opportunity for Employees in accordance with clause 29: Career Planning and Development. The University will use temporary appointments to perform the duties of higher classified positions as opportunities for staff development.
- 31.3 An Employee who is temporarily appointed to, and satisfactorily performs, the duties of a higher classified position (Relieving Position) for:
- (a) at least 5 consecutive working days; or
 - (b) at least 5 separate days within a 2-month period, when the basis of the appointment does not involve consecutive working days but is regular (for example 1 day per week each week);
- is a Relieving Employee and will be paid a Higher Duties Allowance for the time they perform the duties of the Relieving Position (Relief Period).
- 31.4 A Higher Duties Allowance is the difference between the Relieving Employee's salary and the minimum salary of the Relieving Position.
- 31.5 A pro rata Higher Duties Allowance will be paid if the Relieving Employee performs only a proportion of the duties associated with the Relieving Position. The Unit Manager will determine the proportion of the duties performed after consultation with the Relieving Employee.
- 31.6 Prior to the commencement of the Relief Period, a Relieving Employee will be advised of:
- (a) the extent of the duties to be performed;
 - (b) the rate of the Higher Duties Allowance to be paid; and
 - (c) the expected duration of the Relief Period.

- 31.7 For appointments to higher duties for more than 20 working days, the Higher Duties Allowance will be paid for any leave taken during the Relief Period, provided that the allowance would have been paid but for the taking of the leave. Such leave will count as service for incremental purposes.
- 31.8 For appointments to higher duties for 20 working days or less, the Higher Duties Allowance will not be paid for any leave taken during the Relief Period.
- 31.9 A Higher Duties Allowance will be varied during the Relief Period to take into account any changes in:
- (a) Salary for the Relieving Position; and
 - (b) the proportion of duties associated with the Relieving Position.
- 31.10 Where practicable, the opportunity to perform higher duties should ordinarily be made available to Employees within the work unit where the vacancy exists. In making higher duties opportunities available to interested and suitably qualified Employees, the Supervisor will have regard to whether the Employee(s) concerned have previously had a chance to perform the duties of higher classified positions to ensure equity of access to career development opportunities.
- 31.11 Expressions of interest will be used as the basis for filling vacancies of more than 2 weeks' duration where the University has at least 3 weeks' notice of the vacancy.
- 31.12 Higher duties should not normally be offered for more than a 3-month period. If the University expects a position to be vacant for longer than 3 months or an indefinite period, it will be internally advertised in the first instance and filled through competitive selection.
- 31.13 If a Relieving Employee has performed the same Relieving Position for 1 year or more:
- (a) they will be eligible for incremental progression in the position;
 - (b) the Higher Duties Allowance will be paid for any leave taken during the further period of relief; and
 - (c) the Higher Duties Allowance will be superannuable, unless the Employee expressly declines this benefit.
- 31.14 If a Relief Period extends beyond the original time envisaged, the Relieving Employee's Supervisor will either:
- (a) have the Relieving Position reviewed by the Office of Human Resources; or
 - (b) commence recruitment action for the Relieving Position; or
 - (c) provide the Office of Human Resources and the Relieving Employee with reasons for continuing the higher duties; and
 - (d) advise the Relieving Employee of any revised end date for the Relief Period.
- 31.15 If a Relieving Employee is permanently appointed to the Relieving Position through a competitive recruitment process, they will be treated as having been the permanent occupant of that position during the entire period of higher duties for the purposes of incremental progression.
- 31.16 If a Relieving Employee is permanently appointed to a different position at the same or higher level as the Relieving Position, then periods of time in the Relieving Position may be aggregated and taken into account for the purpose of incremental progression within that classification level, or any grandfathered broadbanded position under subclause 30.32.

PART I – FLEXIBLE WORK PROVISIONS

32. FLEXIBLE WORK PROVISIONS

32.1 It is acknowledged that flexible work provisions are provided for throughout this Agreement including, but not limited to, the following clauses:

- (a) clause 7: Individual Flexibility Arrangements;
- (b) clause 19: Salary Packaging;
- (c) clause 25: Hours of Work;
- (d) clause 33: Right to Request Flexible Working Arrangements;
- (e) clause 34: Flexible Hours of Work Scheme;
- (f) clause 38: Personal Leave;
- (g) clause 39: Sick Leave;
- (h) clause 40: Parental Leave; and
- (i) clause 44: Leave Without Pay.

32.2 As part of the University's commitment to a flexible workforce, in certain circumstances ongoing and fixed-term Employees have the opportunity to apply to work from a location other than their designated work place.

33. RIGHT TO REQUEST FLEXIBLE WORKING ARRANGEMENTS

33.1 A request for flexible working arrangements may be made by:

- (a) ongoing and fixed-term Employees with at least 12 months' Continuous Service; and
- (b) casual Employees who have been engaged on a regular and systematic basis for at least 12 months immediately prior to making the request, and have a reasonable expectation of ongoing employment on a regular and systematic basis.

33.2 An eligible Employee may make a request for flexible working arrangements if the Employee:

- (a) is the parent, or has responsibility for the care, of a child who is school age or younger;
- (b) is a carer within the meaning of the Carers (Recognition) Act 2010 (NSW);
- (c) has a disability;
- (d) is 55 or older;

- (e) is experiencing violence from a member of their family; or
- (f) provides care or support to a member of their immediate family or household who requires care or support because they are experiencing violence from the member's family.

33.3 For the purposes of subclause 33.2(f), immediate family means:

- (b) a child, parent, grandparent, grandchild, or sibling of a spouse or de facto partner of the Employee.

33.4 Flexible working arrangements may include, but are not limited to:

- (a) changing from full-time to part-time work (and, where applicable, returning to full-time work subject to the availability of return to full-time work where a replacement Employee has been engaged);
- (b) job sharing;
- (c) changing start and finish times within hours of work regulated by this Agreement;
- (d) decreasing hours of work;
- (e) flexible working hours;
- (f) leave without pay; and
- (g) remote working arrangements.

33.5 A request for flexible working arrangements must be made in writing to an Employee's Supervisor, setting out the details of the change sought and the reasons for the change.

33.6 The University will give genuine consideration to a request for flexible working arrangements.

33.7 The University will respond to a request for flexible working arrangements in writing within 21 days and advise whether the request has been approved or declined. If the request is declined, the University will provide reasons.

33.8 The University may decline a request for flexible working arrangements only on reasonable business grounds which include, but are not limited to:

- (a) the requested working arrangements would be too costly for the University;
- (b) there is no capacity to change the working arrangements of other Employees to accommodate the requested working arrangements;
- (c) the requested working arrangements would be likely to result in significant loss of efficiency or productivity; or
- (d) the requested working arrangements would be likely to have a significant negative impact on customer service.

33.9 If the University declines an application for flexible working arrangements, the Employee may make a further application:

- (a) if the Employee's circumstances change; or
 - (b) after 6 months have elapsed following the initial request being made.
- 33.10 Information regarding the right to request flexible working arrangements will be made available on the University's website.

34. FLEXIBLE HOURS OF WORK SCHEME

- 34.1 This clause does not apply to casual Employees.

General

- 34.2 This clause should be read in conjunction with clause 25: Hours of Work.
- 34.3 Whilst access to the Flexible Hours of Work Scheme (Scheme) is not an automatic entitlement, flexible hours of work will be made available to all Employees subject to the requirements of the work unit. Supervisors and Employees will balance organisational and individual needs in determining individual working arrangements.
- 34.4 If an Employee elects to work a standard 35-hour week rather than participate in the Scheme, any subsequent request to join the Scheme will be subject to approval by the Employee's Supervisor.
- 34.5 Employees whose usual start and finish times are outside bandwidth and core hours will not be disadvantaged by the Scheme.
- 34.6 If an Employee is unable to work successfully within the Scheme, their Supervisor will discuss the issue with the Employee to resolve the matter.

Settlement periods

- 34.7 The Scheme is based on 4-week (140-hour) settlement periods commencing on the Friday following every second payday.

Timesheets

- 34.8 All Employees participating in the Scheme must complete a timesheet covering each settlement period.
- 34.9 Other than in exceptional circumstances, time must be recorded on the day it is worked.

Bandwidth

- 34.10 The bandwidth for hours of work is 7:00 am to 6:00 pm, Monday to Friday.
- 34.11 Time may be accrued during bandwidth hours.
- 34.12 An Employee who is participating in the Scheme may vary their daily start and finish times within the bandwidth subject to:
- (a) the operational requirements of the Employee's work unit; and
 - (b) their Supervisor's approval, which will not be unreasonably withheld.

- 34.13 Regular work outside the bandwidth must be agreed by an Employee's Supervisor, and approved by the head of the Employee's work unit. Any such approvals must be notified to the Executive Director, Human Resources (or nominee).

Core hours

- 34.14 Core hours of work are 9.30am to 3.30pm. Any absences from work during core hours must be accounted for by approved leave, including flex leave.
- 34.15 Regular work outside core hours must be agreed by an Employee's Supervisor, and approved by the head of the Employee's work unit. Any such approvals must be notified to the Executive Director, Human Resources (or nominee).
- 34.16 If, due to exceptional circumstances (for example, urgent carer's responsibilities), an Employee is unable to start or finish work within core hours, they should notify their Supervisor as soon as possible, and any lost time will be debited against the Employee's time credit or debit, or accrued leave entitlements.

Meal break

- 34.17 An Employee must take a meal break of between 30 minutes and 2 hours' duration between 11.30am and 2.30pm, with timing subject to the operational requirements of their work unit. Alternatively, an Employee may elect to take a standard 1-hour meal break.
- 34.18 An Employee must not work more than 5 hours without a meal break.
- 34.19 Substantial extension of an Employee's meal break is subject to the approval of their Supervisor.

Time credit

- 34.20 An Employee may accrue time credit for working more than 7 hours per day, subject to the following:
- (a) gainful work is available;
 - (b) there is an operational requirement for the additional time to be worked; and
 - (c) the additional time is approved by the Employee's Supervisor, with approval not to be unreasonably withheld.
 - (d) time credit will not accrue if overtime is paid for the excess time worked; and
 - (e) time credit is accrued on an hourly basis and not at overtime rates.
- 34.21 At the end of a settlement period:
- (a) a maximum of 14 hours' time credit may be carried forward to the next settlement period; and
 - (b) time credit in excess of 14 hours will be forfeited unless the Employee has been directed not to take flex-leave due to operational requirements, in which case the excess credit may be carried forward to the next settlement period.
- 34.22 An Employee may be directed not to take their accrued flex-leave in a particular settlement period in exceptional circumstances (such as peak work periods), and with the approval of the head of the Employee's work unit. If this occurs, up to 2 days' leave may be carried forward to the next settlement period, and the Supervisor and Employee will agree on a strategy to ensure the Employee reduces their accrued time credit. Any such carry forward is separate to the maximum permitted carry forward referred to in subclause 34.21(a).

Time debit

- 34.23 Any time less than 140 hours worked in a settlement period is a time debit.
- 34.24 At the end of a settlement period:
- (a) time debit of less than 14 hours is carried forward to the next settlement period; and
 - (b) time debit in excess of 14 hours will be debited against an Employee's annual leave or converted to leave without pay, as appropriate.

Flex-leave

- 34.25 Flex-leave is the taking of accrued time credits by agreement between an Employee and their Supervisor.
- 34.26 Supervisors must ensure that Employees are able to take their flex-leave.
- 34.27 Subject to subclause 34.29, in normal circumstances (meaning during the day to day working of the University), an Employee may take up to 14 hours (2 days') flex leave per settlement period.
- 34.28 In circumstances where an Employee has been directed not to take flex-leave due to organisational needs (such as during peak work periods), the untaken leave will be banked to be taken in the next settlement period or the settlement period(s) subsequent to that, subject to the provisions of subclause 34.29(j).
- 34.29 The following provisions must be adhered to in relation to flex-leave:
- (a) to allow for planning and organisational management, Employees must obtain their Supervisor's advance approval to take flex-leave;
 - (b) requests for flex-leave will not be unreasonably refused;
 - (c) flex-leave is to be taken on an hour-for-hour basis, and does not accrue at overtime rates;
 - (d) the operational requirements of the Employee's work unit must be taken into account when planning flex-leave, and Employees must discuss leave proposals with their Supervisor;
 - (e) an Employee may take flex-leave on consecutive days, but more than 2 consecutive days of flex-leave can only be taken with the approval of their Supervisor;
 - (f) Employees cannot expect to always take flex-leave on a Friday or Monday. In the interest of ensuring the continued effective operation of the work unit, other days of the week may be agreed;
 - (g) it is not necessary for Employees to have a credit balance when taking flex-leave;
 - (h) flex-leave may be taken for full or half days, based on a 7-hour day, however when taking half day flex-leave, an Employee must work at least 3½ hours within bandwidth either before or after the flex-leave;

- (i) half day flex-leave may be taken in conjunction with other forms of accrued leave to cover a full day's absence; and
 - (j) a Supervisor must give an Employee reasonable notice when requesting that flex-leave not be taken due to operational requirements. In such circumstances, a maximum of 14 hours' leave will be carried forward and taken in the next settlement period unless prevented by exceptional operational requirements, in which case:
 - (i) the head of the Employee's work unit must make a case to the Executive Director, Human Resources (or nominee) for the Employee to carry the leave forward to the subsequent settlement period; and
 - (ii) if, due to continued operational requirements, the Employee is still unable to take the leave during the subsequent settlement period, the leave will be paid out at ordinary time to the Employee unless alternative arrangements have been made for the Employee to continue to carry the leave forward.
- 34.30 If an Employee gives notice of resignation or retirement, they must clear all accrued flex-leave in consultation with their Supervisor. If the leave cannot be cleared due to operational requirements, it will be paid out to the Employee at ordinary time. Any time debit will be deducted from the Employee's accrued annual leave.

Overtime

- 34.31 Time worked to accrue flex credits or clear time debits will not attract overtime payments.
- 34.32 Overtime is not generally applicable for time worked during bandwidth hours unless the University requires an Employee to work over and above their agreed individual working arrangements. Any such requirement must be approved by the head of the Employee's work unit (or their delegate).

Time off in lieu of overtime

- 34.33 Time off in lieu of overtime only applies if the University grants an Employee time off at overtime rates in lieu of an overtime payment. It does not apply to excess accrued time credit.

Approved leave and public holidays

- 34.34 Standard daily hours (that is, 7 hours) are credited for each day of approved paid leave or public holidays.
- 34.35 An Employee may only claim time credits for a public holiday if it falls on a day that is within the Employee's normal work pattern. An Employee's work pattern must not be varied to enable the Employee to gain time credit for public holidays.

Changed arrangements

- 34.36 Where there are changed organisational and operational requirements for the area of work that may affect the hours worked by affected Employees, clause 48: Organisational Change will be followed. The University will consider, amongst other things, Employees' family, carer's, and disability needs, and will include these considerations within its decision making.

Shift work

- 34.37 Employees who work under set 5 or 7 day rosters receive the appropriate shift allowances and may accrue time credit in accordance with the shift roster.
- 34.38 For those Employees who are required to work designated shifts from time to time, any additional hours accrued on shift days for the purpose of flex-leave will not attract a shift penalty.

Monitoring of the Scheme

- 34.39 The Implementation Committee will monitor the operation of the Scheme.

PART J – LEAVE ENTITLEMENTS

35. ANNUAL LEAVE

- 35.1 This clause does not apply to casual Employees.

- 35.5 Annual leave is in addition to any Public Holiday(s) occurring during the period of leave.
- 35.6 Annual leave accrues at half the ordinary rate whilst an Employee is on any form of leave on half pay.
- 35.7 If an Employee who is eligible for sick leave produces a satisfactory medical certificate that they had been ill or injured whilst on annual leave, the University will:
- (a) re-credit the Employee with an equivalent period of annual leave; and
 - (b) deduct an equivalent period of sick leave.
- 35.8 If an Employee has accrued annual leave but their employment ends before they take the leave, they will receive payment in lieu based on their Salary at end of their employment, and subject to the provisions of clause 31: Higher Duties.
- 35.9 If an Employee dies, payment in lieu of the Employee's accrued annual leave entitlement will be made to Employee's personal legal representative, unless paid to the Employee's estate.

Taking annual leave

- 35.10 Annual leave will be taken at times agreed between an Employee and their Supervisor. Supervisors have a responsibility to facilitate leave planning and the ability for Employees to take annual leave.

- 35.11 During each calendar year, an Employee must take at least 15 days of annual leave unless the Employee does not have sufficient leave accrued. The University may defer this requirement on a case by case basis provided the Employee takes 30 days of annual leave within 2 years.

Direction to take annual leave

- 35.12 If an Employee has accrued more than 30 days of annual leave, the University may direct the Employee in writing to take up to one-quarter of the Employee's accrued leave entitlement at a time mutually convenient to the Employee and the University, but not more than 3 months from the date on which the direction is given.
- 35.13 If an Employee has been directed to take annual leave under subclause 35.12, the Employee's Supervisor will not unreasonably refuse the Employee's application for annual leave on alternative dates, provided these alternative dates are within an 8-week period either side of the dates directed.
- 35.14 An Employee who has given written notice of their intended date of retirement will not be directed to take annual leave within 12 months of that date.

36. CHRISTMAS AND NEW YEAR SHUTDOWN

- 36.1 This clause does not apply to casual Employees.
- 36.2 The University may shut down over the Christmas and New Year period. If this occurs, the University:

 - (b) will allocate 1 day in lieu of the Bank Holiday in accordance with clause 46: Public Holidays; and
 - (c) may direct Employees to take up to 4 days of annual leave on working days that fall during the shutdown, other than days that are Public Holidays and/or Concessional Days.
- 36.3 An Employee may elect to take accrued flex leave, long service leave, or leave without pay instead of annual leave during the shutdown.
- 36.4 In exceptional circumstances, an Employee who has exhausted their leave entitlements may make an application to the Executive Director, Human Resources, for leave in advance to cover mandated leave dates. An application will not be unreasonably refused.
- 36.5 Employees who are directed to work on a Concessional Day(s) will be entitled to take the day(s) at other times approved by their Supervisor.

- (a) the period between cessation of employment with the former employer and commencement of employment with the University is 2 months or less, however this period will not count towards length of service;
- (b) if the Employee has taken long service leave with their former employer, they will not be entitled to long service leave for the period of service for which leave has been taken, however this period of service will be included as qualifying service for determining eligibility for long service leave and the rate of accrual;
- (c) if the Employee has been paid, or is eligible to be paid, in lieu of long service leave by their former employer, they will not be entitled to long service leave for the period of service for which leave has been paid or is eligible to be paid, however this period of service will be included as qualifying service for determining eligibility for long service leave and the rate of accrual; and
- (d) an Employee will be required to serve at least 5 years with the University before taking or being paid in lieu of long service leave, except that payment in lieu will be made if an Employee dies, retires, receives an ill health benefit under the provisions of their superannuation fund, accepts redundancy, or is retrenched.

- (b) deduct an equivalent amount of sick leave.

Direction to take long service leave

- 37.14 The University may direct an Employee with more than 4.5 months' accrued long service leave to take up to 3 months' leave at a time convenient to the University, provided that:

47. JOB SECURITY

- 47.1 Job security is important for the University to function effectively and achieve its strategic goals.
- 47.2 The University recognises the value of attracting, developing, and retaining high quality staff on merit, and on an ongoing basis. It is not the University's intention to use casual employment to fill positions that could otherwise reasonably be filled on an ongoing or fixed-term basis.
- 47.3 Over the nominal term of this Agreement, the University will seek to:
- (a) minimise retrenchments where possible; and
 - (b) not increase casual employment at the expense of ongoing employment.

48. ORGANISATIONAL CHANGE

Terms used in this clause

- 48.1 For the purposes of this clause:
- (a) consultation means:
 - (i) the sharing of relevant information, including the nature of the proposed change and its impact on directly affected Employees, with directly affected Employees, the Unions, and any appointed Representatives;
 - (ii) directly affected Employees being given the opportunity to express their views and contribute in a timely fashion; and
 - (iii) the views of directly affected Employees, the Unions and any appointed Representatives being valued and taken into account by the University;

- (b) Employees are directly affected if proposed organisational change is likely to have a significant impact on their work practices, working conditions and/or employment prospects;
- (c) minor change is organisational change that does not fall within the definition of significant organisational change;
- (d) outsourcing means replacing or replicating the work specifically and directly performed by an Employee at the time outsourcing is proposed with a contract for service or work by an organisation (including a controlled entity) or someone who is not an Employee; and
- (e) significant organisational change may include the following outcomes:
 - (i) termination of employment (including redundancy);
 - (ii) changes to the composition or size of the workforce;
 - (iii) closure of a University work unit(s);

 - (vii) relocating directly affected Employees to another campus; and
 - (viii) a significant reduction in employment or significant adverse impact on employment opportunities (including redeployment).

Representation

- 48.2 A directly affected Employee may choose to seek the advice, representation and support of their Union during consultation, or appoint a Representative to assist them for the purposes of this clause.

Consultation on proposed organisational change

- 48.3 Effective organisational change requires genuine consultation. To achieve this, the University will consult with all Employees who may be directly affected by proposed significant organisational change, including Employees on leave or secondment.
- 48.4 The process of academic planning, including decisions on the academic offerings of the University, do not require consultation under this clause, unless a decision made as part of academic planning leads to a proposal for significant organisational change.

Minor change

- 48.5 Minor change will be addressed at the local level through discussion with directly affected Employees and, if appropriate, the work unit.
- 48.6 In cases of proposed minor change, the formal change process will not apply if:

- (a) all directly affected Employees in the relevant work unit have been involved in discussion and consideration of the change; and
 - (b) all of those Employees agree with the proposed minor change.
- 48.7 If directly affected Employees advise the University, either directly or through their Union or appointed Representative that they do not agree with the proposed minor change the formal change process will apply.

Discussions before a change proposal is developed

- 48.8 The University will discuss with directly affected Employees issues that might lead to change before developing a change proposal. Such discussions may include the preparation of an issues paper, which would be made available to directly affected Employees of the work unit prior to the development and release of a formal change proposal.

Outsourcing

- 48.9 A proposal for outsourcing will not be justified primarily on the basis that an outside service provider has lower rates of pay than the University.
- 48.10 If outsourcing is proposed, the University will make an issues paper available to directly affected Employees prior to the release of a formal change proposal that includes the provision of evidence to support the case for outsourcing.
- 48.11 The University will also report to the Implementation Committee about any outsourcing proposal and will forward any organisational change proposal involving outsourcing to the Implementation Committee at the time the proposal is released to Employees.

Developing a change proposal

- 48.12 The University will develop a written change proposal covering the following issues if significant organisational change is proposed:
- (a) type and nature of the proposed change;

- (m) details of the post-restructure review to be conducted under subclause 48.33, or where the University has determined that such a review would not be appropriate, the reasons for that determination.

The consultation process

- 48.13 A change proposal will be sent to all directly affected Employees, and the Unions and/or any appointed Representatives, including any Employees on leave or secondment, allowing at least 2 weeks for feedback.
- 48.14 As soon as practicable after the release of a change proposal, the University will consult with all directly affected Employees, the Unions, and any appointed Representatives. Where practicable, consultation will take the form of face to face meetings.
- 48.15 During the consultation process, an Employee whose position is proposed to be discontinued may:
 - (a) suggest measures to mitigate any negative consequences for the Employee if the change proposal is approved for implementation; or
 - (b) make a direct submission to the Employment Executive Member about the proposed discontinuation of their position. The Employment Executive Member will consider the Employee's submission and advise the Employee of their determination within 7 days.
- 48.16 Following consultation and taking into account feedback from directly affected Employees, the Unions, and any appointed Representatives, the University will finalise the change proposal.

Distribution of final change plan

- 48.17 The University will distribute the approved final change plan, together with a Management Response document, to all directly affected Employees, the Unions, and any appointed Representatives before implementing the plan.
- 48.18 The final change plan will also include responses to all concerns and/or issues raised by Employees and/or the Unions.

Implementation of final change plan

- 48.19 The University will consult with directly affected Employees, the Unions, and any appointed Representatives about the process of implementing the change plan, including any measures that could be taken to mitigate any negative consequences for directly affected Employees.
- 48.20 The University will use retrenchment as a last resort. When retrenchment occurs, the University will make available career transition services to an agreed service level upon request by an affected ongoing Employee.

Relocation

- 48.21 If organisational change results in an ongoing or fixed-term Employee being relocated to a different campus and this would result in an unreasonable increase in the Employee's travel time or costs, or unreasonably impact on the Employee's family or carer's responsibilities, the University will, if practicable, consider the following relocation options:

- (a) voluntary swap with another Employee in a similar position at a different location;
 - (b) flexible work practices, such as working at the new location for an agreed number of days per week;
 - (c) working in the new location for a trial period;
 - (d) working remotely for a trial period;
 - (e) a combination of working in the new location and remotely for a trial period; or
 - (f) any other options suggested by the Employee, their Union(s) or Representative, and the University.
- 48.22 Relocation options, other than a voluntary position swap, will be reviewed after 3 months and either confirmed or, if the option proves unworkable or the relocation remains unreasonable for the Employee, the Employee will then become displaced and clause 49: Redeployment and Redundancy will apply.

Restructuring

- 48.23 If a work unit is restructured, and:
- (a) there are the same or fewer directly affected ongoing Employees as there are substantially the same positions in the new structure; and
 - (b) a position that is substantially the same as that previously held by a directly affected Employee exists in the new structure;
- that Employee will be entitled to continue their employment with the University in that position.
- 48.24 If a work unit is restructured and there are more directly affected ongoing Employees than there are substantially the same positions in the new structure, the University may call for expressions of interest in redundancy from directly affected ongoing Employees.
- 48.25 Within 20 working days of receiving an expression of interest in redundancy from an Employee, the University will advise the Employee in writing as to whether the Employee will be offered redundancy. If redundancy is offered to an Employee, then clause 49: Redeployment and Redundancy will apply.
- 48.26 If after calling for expressions of interest in redundancy, there remain more directly affected ongoing Employees than there are substantially the same positions in the new structure, the University will place the remaining affected Employees into the positions using a merit-based selection process.
- 48.27 A directly affected ongoing Employee who is not placed in the new structure will become an eligible Employee.
- 48.28 The University may place an eligible Employee in a new or vacant position in the new structure if:
- (a) the position is suitable; and
 - (b) the eligible Employee agrees to the placement, such agreement will not be unreasonably withheld.

- 48.29 A suitable position is one for which the eligible Employee possesses the necessary essential skills, qualifications and/or experience, or is likely to attain them following a reasonable period of retraining, and which is equivalent in Salary to the eligible Employee's previous position. The process of placement will be supported by a centrally administered capability assessment process.
- 48.30 If an eligible Employee agrees, the University may place them in a new or vacant position within the new structure at a lower level, in which case the Employee's Salary will be maintained for all purposes at the level of their previous position as follows:
- (a) for 24 months, if the Employee agrees to be placed 1 level lower; or
 - (b) for 12 months, if the Employee agrees to be placed more than 1 level lower;
- after which it will be reduced to the maximum Salary step of the new or vacant position.
- 48.31 If there are 2 or more eligible Employees being considered for placement in a suitable new or vacant position in the new structure, placement will be determined using a merit-based selection process.
- 48.32 An eligible Employee who is not placed will become a displaced employee and the conditions in clause 49: Redeployment and Redundancy will apply.

Post-restructure review

- 48.33 Within 12 months of the final change plan being released, the University will conduct a review of the implemented change as against the rationale and expected outcomes detailed in the change plan.
- 48.34 The University will:
- (a) provide a copy of the draft post-restructure review report to directly affected Employees and the Union(s) for their comment; and
 - (b) incorporate any feedback received from directly affected Employees and/or the Union(s) into the final report.

49. REDEPLOYMENT AND REDUNDANCY

- 49.1 This clause does not apply to casual or fixed-term Employees.

Displaced Employees

- 49.2 Organisational change may result in an ongoing Employee being displaced because the University no longer requires the Employee's job to be performed by anyone due to changes in the University's operational requirements, in which case the procedures set out in this clause will apply.
- 49.3 The University will:
- (a) advise an Employee in writing if they are displaced;
 - (b) discuss with a displaced Employee their options regarding redeployment or redundancy; and
 - (c) pro-actively case manage and consult with the displaced Employee.

- 49.4 The University will provide displaced employees with calculations of their estimated redundancy entitlements including taxation, and annual and long service leave entitlements.

Support for displaced Employees

- 49.5 The University will provide the following support to displaced Employees:
- (a) professional assistance in applying for positions, interview techniques and career planning;
 - (b) professional counselling; and/or
 - (c) job search and career transition management services, which may include relevant and specifically targeted short-term training programs.
- 49.6 If the University proposes to transfer an ongoing Employee to another employer, the following conditions will apply:
- (a) no Employee will be forced to transfer to another employer; and
 - (b) if an Employee wishes to remain with the University, the Employee will have access to the redundancy and redeployment provisions contained in this clause.

Consideration period

- 49.7 The University will give a displaced Employee 10 working days to:
- (a) elect in writing to be considered for redeployment; or
 - (b) express an interest in redundancy.
- 49.8 If a displaced Employee does not make an election within the required timeframe, and there are no positions into which the Employee could be redeployed, the University will immediately commence the redeployment period in relation to the Employee in accordance with subclause 49.11.
- 49.9 If an Employee is on secondment at the time their substantive position is discontinued, and:
- (a) the secondment has more than 6 months remaining, the Employee will be required to make an election under subclause 49.7 at that time. The Employee may elect:
 - (i) redundancy, which will then take effect in accordance with subclause 49.23; or
 - (ii) redeployment, in which case the redeployment period will commence from the date of election in accordance with subclause 49.11; or
 - (b) the secondment has less than 6 months remaining, the requirement to make an election under subclause 49.7 will be deferred until the conclusion of the secondment (excluding any extensions).

Redeployment

- 49.10 If a displaced Employee elects redeployment, their election must include a curriculum vitae to assist in the redeployment process.

49.11 If a displaced Employee elects redeployment, the University will try to identify a suitable position for redeployment (redeployment period). The University may agree to a longer or shorter redeployment period if requested by the Employee.

49.12 A displaced Employee who has elected to be considered for redeployment will be entitled to the following redeployment period:

CATEGORY OF EMPLOYEE		REDEPLOYMENT PERIOD
(a)	level 6 and below	20 weeks
(b)	an Employee at level 7 and above displaced through a decision by the University to outsource the Employee's work, and who:	16 weeks (may elect to be paid in lieu of 4 weeks)
	(i) is aged 45 years or over; or
	(ii) has more than 15 years of Continuous Service with the University
(c)	all other Employees	12 weeks

49.13 During the redeployment period, a displaced Employee:

- (a) may continue to work in their own work unit, and/or work temporarily in another work unit, and/or undertake training; and
- (b) will be given reasonable paid time off work to attend job interviews or undertake other job search activities.

49.14 The University will keep a register of displaced Employees and examine all vacant positions before advertising to determine whether there is a displaced Employee suitable for redeployment. A position will only be advertised externally if it can be shown there is no Employee who could be redeployed into the position, including with reasonable retraining.

49.15 A displaced Employee who has elected redeployment and has the essential skills and qualifications to fill a suitable vacant position takes precedence over all other persons in appointment to that position.

49.16 If there is more than one displaced Employee being considered for a position, the University will decide which Employee best meets the position requirements based on their skills, qualifications and experience.

49.17 A displaced Employee seeking redeployment may also seek retraining to enable them to be redeployed to a specified position within the University.

49.18 The University is committed to providing reasonable time and resources for retraining.

Offers of redeployment

49.19 A displaced Employee who elects redeployment must not refuse a reasonable offer of redeployment or training, however this does not mean the Employee will be required to accept redeployment to a position at a lower salary level or at reduced hours.

49.20 If a displaced Employee accepts redeployment to a position at a lower level, the Employee's Salary will be maintained for all purposes at the level of their previous position as follows:

- (a) for 24 months, if the Employee accepts redeployment to a position that is 1 level lower than their previous position;

General

- 53.5 The University may only take action against an Employee for an alleged Breach or alleged Research Misconduct under this clause.
- 53.6 If a matter that could be dealt with under this clause has in good faith been addressed under clause 51: Unsatisfactory Performance, this clause will not apply.
- 53.7 An Employee may choose to be accompanied by a support person or Representative, including an official of the Union, at any stage of the process prescribed by this clause.
- 53.8 If a person is required to deal with a matter under this clause on behalf of the University but a potential conflict of interest exists, the University may nominate an alternate person to deal with the matter.
- 53.9 Employees must report an alleged Breach or alleged Research Misconduct to the relevant Academic Unit Director of Research (or equivalent) in a timely manner. Any such allegation must be made in good faith. If an Employee makes an allegation that is frivolous, vexatious or in bad faith, the University may take disciplinary action against that Employee under clause 52: Misconduct or Serious Misconduct.

Records

- 53.10 All documents relevant to the process conducted under this clause should be kept including, but not limited to, meeting notes.

Suspension in cases of alleged Research Misconduct

- 53.11 In cases of alleged Research Misconduct, an Employee may be suspended at any stage of a process conducted under this clause:
- (a) with pay if there is a possibility of a risk to: the health and safety of a person; the security, reputation, viability, or profitability of the University's business; or of interference with evidence relevant to the investigation; or
 - (b) without pay if it would be unreasonable for the Employee to continue in paid employment during the process.

Agreed early resolution

- 53.14 At any stage of a process conducted under this clause, the University and the Employee may agree to place the process on hold for up to 10 working days (or longer period as agreed) and enter into confidential and without prejudice discussions with a view to reaching a mutually agreed early resolution of the matter.
- 53.15 If the University and the Employee cannot reach a mutually agreed early resolution of the matter within the agreed timeframe, the process will be resumed.
- 53.16 Unless otherwise agreed, any information a party provides during attempted early resolution cannot be relied upon by the other party for any other purpose.

Preliminary enquiries

- 53.17 In the first instance, an alleged Breach or alleged Research Misconduct will be referred to the relevant Academic Unit Director of Research (or equivalent) who will, in conjunction with the head of the Employee's work unit, make preliminary enquiries to gather relevant material and ascertain whether there is a prima facie case of Breach or Research Misconduct.

Informal resolution

- 53.18 If the Director of Research and the head of the Employee's work unit are of the view that the matter may give rise to a finding of a Breach and warrants further action, the head of the work unit will make all reasonable efforts to informally resolve the matter using discussion, guidance, counselling and/or staff development where it is appropriate to do so. Informal resolution may also include the Employee admitting the alleged conduct and/or an agreement being made for early resolution of the matter.
- 53.19 If the head of the work unit is unable to resolve the alleged Breach informally, they will refer the matter for Research Investigation.
- 53.20 If the Director of Research and the head of the Employee's work unit are of the view that the matter may give rise to a finding of Research Misconduct and warrants further action, informal resolution will not apply and the matter will be referred immediately for Research Investigation.

Research Investigation

- 53.21 A Research Investigation will be carried out by the Deputy Vice-Chancellor (Research, Engagement, Development and International) (DVC(REDI)) (or their nominee, being a senior member of the University who is experienced in research and research management).
- 53.22 The DVC(REDI) (or nominee) will advise the Employee of the decision to conduct a Research Investigation, and clause 60: Employee Representation, unless the DVC(REDI) (or nominee) determines that exceptional circumstances exist and it is not appropriate for the Employee to be aware of, and involved in, the investigation.
- 53.23 As part of the Research Investigation:
- (a) the Employee will be given an opportunity to be interviewed and respond to any evidence;
 - (b) the Employee will also be given an opportunity to nominate persons relevant to the investigation together with their contact details and a brief summary of the evidence that they may provide;
 - (c) the DVC(REDI) (or nominee) may interview any person to establish the facts and any mitigating circumstances;
 - (d) the DVC(REDI) (or nominee) will make all reasonable attempts to interview persons nominated by the Employee. Any refusal or failure by a nominated person to participate in the Research Investigation will not prejudice the investigation; and
 - (e) the DVC(R&D) (or nominee) will take into account any information relevant to the matter.
- 53.24 The DVC(REDI) (or nominee) will conduct the Research Investigation as expeditiously and confidentially as possible.
- 53.25 If, following completion of the Research Investigation, the DVC(REDI) (or nominee) is of the view that:
- (a) an alleged Breach or alleged Research Misconduct has not occurred, the DVC(REDI) (or nominee) will advise the head of the Employee's work unit accordingly and no further action will be taken;

- (b) an alleged Breach has occurred, the matter will be referred to the head of the Employee's work unit for Disciplinary Action (other than termination of employment); or
- (c) alleged Research Misconduct has occurred, the DVC(REDI) (or nominee) will issue formal allegations of Research Misconduct in accordance with subclause 53.26.

Allegation(s)

- 53.27 The Employee will be provided with 10 working days (or longer period as agreed) in which to respond to the allegation(s).

Response to allegation(s)

- (a) determines that the Employee has not engaged in Research Misconduct, the allegation(s) will be dismissed and the Employee advised accordingly in writing within 10 working days;
 - (b) determines that the Employee has not engaged in Research Misconduct but has committed a Breach, the DVC(REDI) (or nominee) will refer the matter to the head of the Employee's work unit for Disciplinary Action (other than termination of employment) within 10 working days and take no further action; or
 - (c) remains of the view that Research Misconduct may have occurred, the matter will be referred to a Research Misconduct Panel.

Research Misconduct Panel

- 53.30 The role of the Research Misconduct Panel is to make findings of fact and identify any mitigating circumstances regarding the alleged Research Misconduct, and provide a written report to the Vice-Chancellor.
- 53.31 The Research Misconduct Panel will comprise:
- (a) one member nominated by the University, with knowledge and experience in the relevant field of research;
 - (b) one member nominated by the Union, with knowledge and experience in the relevant field of research; and

- 53.33 The Research Misconduct Panel will determine its own procedure in order to effectively carry out its role, but as a minimum the Panel will:
- (a) provide the Employee with an opportunity to be interviewed, make submissions, and present and respond to evidence regarding the allegation(s), including presenting any mitigating circumstances;
 - (b) allow the Employee to provide the Panel with a list of persons relevant to the proceedings together with their contact details and a brief summary of the evidence that they may give. Any refusal or failure by a nominated person to participate in the proceedings will not prejudice the proceedings;
 - (c) interview any person it considers appropriate to establish the facts and any mitigating circumstances;
 - (d) conduct all interviews in the presence of the Employee unless it is not appropriate to do so, in which case the person may be interviewed by videolink;

Determination

- 53.35 Having considered the Research Misconduct Panel's report, the Vice-Chancellor may:

No further right of appeal

- 53.38 Where a decision to take action has been made in accordance with this clause, no further appeal can be made within the University. Nothing in this clause will be construed as excluding the jurisdiction of any external court or tribunal which would be competent to deal with this matter.

54.5 If the University is not reasonably able to give the required notice due to circumstances external to the University and beyond its control relating to the provision of specific funding for the employment of the fixed-term Employee, it will be sufficient compliance with this clause if the University:

- (a) advises those circumstances to the Employee in writing at the latest time at which the notice would otherwise be required to be given; and
- (b) gives notice to the Employee at the earliest practicable date thereafter.

54.6 The University is not required to give notice or payment in lieu if the Employee is found to have engaged in Serious Misconduct, such that it would be unreasonable to require the University to continue the Employee's employment during the required period of notice.

54.7 The University may terminate the employment of a casual Employee:

- (a) by providing 1 hours' written notice;
- (b) at the end of the Employee's shift; or

- 56.3 If there is no explanation for the Employee's absence, the Executive Director, Human Resources (or nominee) will make reasonable attempts to contact the Employee and their nominated emergency contact(s) using the contact details on the Employee's personnel file, requesting an explanation for the absence. This will include sending a registered letter to the Employee's nominated postal address, which will be taken to be received by the Employee 3 working days after the day on which it is sent.
