SUMMARY

In view of the number of candidates that have nominated for multiple positions it is not possible to confirm the outcome of many positions where there is only one candidate if it is not their first preference. Positions where this applies are:

- First Nations Representative
- Women's Representative

The following position received a single valid nomination which was their first preference:

- Bankstown Campus Representative

The candidate will be declared elected at the time of declaration of the election outcome as the position is their first preference on the nomination form. They will be removed from consideration for other positions for which they nominated.

There will however be an election required and it will cover the following contested positions:

President
Vice President (Undergraduate)
Vice President (Postgraduate)
General Secretary
Vice President (Activities)
Disabilities Representative
Environment Representative
Ethno-Cultural Representative
International Students Representative
Queer Representative
Residential Students Representative
Welfare & Wellbeing Representative
Campbelltown Campus Representative
Hawkesbury Campus Representative
Liverpool Campus Representative
Parramatta City Campus Representative
Parramatta South Campus Representative
Student Editors

NUS Delegates

CASUAL VACANCIES

The following position did not receive any nominations.

- Nirimba Campus Representative
- On-Line Students Representative
- Penrith Campus Representative
- Small & Regional Campus Representative

Accordingly, they will be treated as casual vacancies to be addressed by the incoming Council following the declaration of the election.

There will be a requirement to conduct a ballot for the contested positions. This will be the subject of an on-line ballot to take place from 4-14 September 2023. Ballot closes at 4.00 pm.

The declaration of the election will take place on 3 October 2023 following the conduct of the online voting with successful candidates to serve for the term from 1 January 2024 to 31 December 2024
