PROGRESSION

AT RISK

Failed 50% or more of the credit points attempted in the last six months of enrolment

AT RISK

If after a further six months you have failed more than 50% of the credit points attempted during your last 12 months of study you will be placed on CONDITIONAL ENROLMENT

CONDITIONAL ENROLMENT

Must reduce study load per session to 30 credit points for full time and 10 credit points for part time

You have the right to appeal against the decision

Talk to your Academic Course Advisor or Director of Academic Program about your study plans

At the conclusion of your conditional enrolment if you pass less than 50% of the credit points attempted you will be EXCLUDED

EXCLUDED

Your enrolment in your course is cancelled and you will not be granted Advanced Standing for units completed at another university during your exclusion period.

You cannot transfer to another course or study as a non-award student during your exclusion period.

You will not have access to Western Sydney University campuses or systems including your student email account

For further study at the University after the exclusion period, domestic students must apply through UAC and International students through the International Office

Excluded international students should contact the Student Welfare Service

You have the right to appeal against the decision

PLEASE NOTE: If you are studying Medicine, or enrolled at The College - you may have different sanctions that apply to you.

AT RISK

Failed the same unit, or its equivalent, on two separate occasions

AT RISK

Failed the same unit, or its equivalent, on three or more separate occasions

EXCLUDED

Failed to complete your course within the maximum allowed time

EXCLUDED

for two years

VER. 1.2015