UNDER 18 STUDENT ACCOMMODATION AND WELFARE APPROVAL APPLICATION FORM

SECTION 5: DECLARATION

I understand and accept that:

- (1) A student who is the subject of an accommodation and welfare arrangement with the University must:
  - a. live in the University-approved accommodation for the duration of the CAAW letter or until it is cancelled or changed by the University;
  - b. act responsibly, including being aware of their responsibilities under Australian law, not participate in illicit activities, and not partake in risk-taking behaviour;
  - c. attend scheduled meetings with their University case manager;
  - d. follow the instructions of their University case manager; and
  - e. obtain their parent/guardian's prior written approval to stay away from the approved accommodation.
- (2) Where the student has their parent/guardian's written approval to stay away from the approved homestay accommodation, the homestay provider will inform the Manager, Student Welfare Services or the student's case manager in advance of the relevant period.
- (3) The University may cancel the accommodation and welfare arrangements of any student who breaches any of these conditions, by cancelling the student's CAAW letter. Before cancelling a CAAW letter, the University will provide the student with an opportunity to show cause as to why the CAAW letter should not be cancelled.
- (4) Where the University cancels a CAAW letter:
  - a. the University will cancel the student's enrolment if no alternative suitable arrangements have been put in place for the student's accommodation and welfare;
  - b. the student's parents/guardian should contact the Department of Immigration and Border Protection (DIBP) as to the impact on the student's visa.
- (5) If a student and their parents/guardian wish to put in place accommodation and welfare arrangements that are different from those the University has approved:
  - a. the parents/guardian must first consult the University about the proposed alternative arrangements and provide evidence that the arrangements will satisfy the requirements of the ESOS National Code for international students under 18 years;
  - b. where the University is satisfied the alternative arrangements will satisfy the requirements of the ESOS National Code:
    - i. if the student will no longer have a homestay place with an approved homestay provider, the University will cancel the CAAW letter; or
    - ii. if the student is to transfer to another approved homestay provider, the parents/guardian must enter into an agreement with the new homestay provider and provide a copy of the agreement to the University who will then issue a new CAAW letter; and
- (6) I will abide by the terms and conditions that apply to the use of a Homestay provider approved by the University.
- (7) The student must make contact with their Western Sydney University under 18 Case Manager to confirm their arrival within 48 hours of arrival in Australia.
- (8) I authorize the University to check my child's visa conditions and status using the Department of Immigration and Border Protection (DIBP) Visa Electronic Verification Online (VEVO) system.
- (9) I give permission to The University to release information regarding the student's contact details, academic performance and results and attendance to the appointed welfare provider to inform the welfare provider of their progress and to the Australian government to ensure the student is meeting their visa requirements.
