Schedule 1: examples of how Scholarships payments will be paid or adjusted.

1. Required Attempted Credit Points for Scholarship Payment

- a. The first Scholarship payment will be made to the Scholarship Recipient's Program Tuition Fee account after the Scholarship Recipient has enrolled in 40 Credit Points. For example:
- Full Time Load: If the Scholarship Recipient enrolls in and completes 40 Credit Points in the first Study Period, the first Scholarship payment will be made to the Scholarship Recipient's Program Tuition Fee account by the end of the first Study Period and the value of the Scholarship payment will be offset against the Program Tuition Fee of the second Study Period.
 - Approved Reduced Study Load: If the Scholarship Recipient enrolls in and completes 20 Credit Points in the first Study Period, and 30 Credit Points in the second Study Period, being a total of 50 Credit Points, the Scholarship payment will not be made until by the end of the second Study Period and the value of the Scholarship payment will be offset against the Program Tuition Fee of the third Study Period.
- b. The second Scholarship payment will be made to the Scholarship Recipient's Program Tuition Fee account after the Scholarship Recipient has fully attempted 80 Credit Points. For example:
- Full Time Load: If the Scholarship Recipient enrolls in and completes 40 Credit Points in the first Study Period and 40 Credit Points in the second Study Period, the second Scholarship payment will be made to the Scholarship Recipient's Program Tuition Fee account by the end of the third Study Period and the value of the Scholarship payment will be offset against the Program Tuition Fee for the fourth Study Period.
 - Approved Reduced Study Load: If the Scholarship Recipient enrolls in and completes 30 Credit Points in the first Study Period, 20 Credit Points in the second Study Period and 30 Credit Points in the third Study Period (being a total of 80 Credit Points), the second Scholarship payment will be made to the Scholarship Recipient's Program Tuition Fee by the end of the fourth semester and the value of the Scholarship payment will offset against the Program Tuition Fee for the fifth Study Period.
- c. The third and final Scholarship payment will be made to the Scholarship Recipient's Program Tuition Fee account after the Scholarship Recipient has enrolled in and fully attempted 160 Credit Points. For example:
- Full Time Load: If the Scholarship Recipient enrolls in and completes 80 Credit Points in the first academic year and 80 Credit Points in the second academic year, the third and final Scholarship payment will be made to the Scholarship Recipient's Program Tuition Fee account by the end of the fifth semester, and the value of the Scholarship payment will offset the Program Tuition Fee for the sixth semester.
 - Approved Reduced Study Load: If the Scholarship Recipient enrolls in and completes 60 Credit Points in the first academic year (for example, over two Study Periods in that academic year), then 60 Credit Points in the second academic year and 40 Credit Points in the fifth Study Period (being a total of 200 Credit Points), the third and final Scholarship payment will be made to the Scholarship Recipient's Program Tuition Fee account by the end of the sixth Study Period, and the value of the Scholarship payment will offset the Program Tuition Fees for the seventh Study Period If scholarship extension has been granted.
- d. In the event that Scholarship Recipients have been granted approval for a Reduced Study Load or any other adjustments or extensions to their Program or payment of their Scholarship, the University will review, adjust and reconcile all Scholarship payments In the Scholarship Recipients final Study Period. The next scholarship payment is likely to be postponed.

Table A (Full Time Study Load) illustrates the Study Period in which Scholarship Recipients who are enrolled in a Full Time Study Load (40 Credit Points per Study Period) may expect to pay less Program Tuition Fees (PTF).

Table A does not apply where a Scholarship Recipient is enrolled in a Reduced Study Load. Scholarship payments will be postponed if the Scholarship Recipient enrolls in a Reduced Study Load.

INTAKE	1ST SCHOLARSHIP PAYMENT	STUDY PERIOD WITH REDUCED PTF PAYABLE	2ND SCHOLARSHIP PAYMENT	STUDY PERIOD WITH REDUCED PTF PAYABLE	3 RD SCHOLARSHIP PAYMENT	STUDY PERIOD WITH REDUCED PTF PAYABLE

2. Other examples

a. Credit for Prior Learning

Where the Scholarship Recipient has received Credit for Prior Learning, the total Scholarship contribution will be prorated based on the total minimum Credit Points required for Program completion. For example:

- i. For a Scholarship Recipient who has been awarded a $5000 multi-year Scholarship, studies a Full Time Study Load, and has also been granted 30 Credit Points of Credit for Prior Learning for a Program that requires 240 Credit Points, the total Scholarship amount will be re-calculated based on 210 Credit Points (240 Credit Points less 30 Credit Points awarded for Credit for Prior Learning). In this case, the Scholarship Recipient will receive $5000 for the first Scholarship payment (80 Credit Points); $5000 for the second Scholarship payment (80 Credit Points), but the final Scholarship payment will be $3,125 (50 Credit Points).
- ii. The same calculations apply to a Scholarship Recipient who has been awarded a $10,000 multiyear Scholarship, meaning that the final Scholarship payment will be $6,250 (50 Credit Points). For example, for a Scholarship Recipient who has been awarded a $10,000 multi-year Scholarship, studies a Full Time Study Load and has also been granted 30 Credit Points of Credit for Prior Learning for a Program that requires 240 Credit Points, the total Scholarship amount will be re-calculated based on 210 credit points (240 Credit Points less 30 Credit Points awarded for Credit for Prior Learning). In this case, the Scholarship Recipient will receive $10,000 for the first Scholarship payment (80 credit points); $10,000 for the second scholarship payment (80 Credit Points), but final Scholarship payment will be $6,250 (50 Credit Points).

b. Student withdrawals from program

Where a Scholarship Recipient decides to withdraw from his/her study in Autumn 2026 Study Period and the value of the scholarship has been allocated to the Scholarship Recipient's fee account and has been used to pay for the Autumn 2026 Study Period's tuition fee, the total scholarship value will be returned to the University and the value of the Scholarship value will not be refundable to the Scholarship Recipient.

c. Student becomes PR or no longer paying International Program Tuition fees

Where a Scholarship Recipient becomes a Permanent Resident of Australia, or is no longer paying international Program Tuition Fees in Autumn 2026 and the value of the scholarship has been allocated to the Scholarship Recipient's fee account and has been used to pay for the Spring 2026 Study Period's tuition fee, the entire scholarship amount will be returned to the University and the value of the Scholarship will not be refundable to the Scholarship Recipient. For example:

- i. For a Scholarship Recipient who has been awarded a $5000 multi-year Scholarship, studies a Full Time Study Load, and has become permanent resident In Autumn 2026 and receive $5000 scholarship payment by 15 June 2026 to offset the tuition fee for Spring 2026, the total Scholarship amount of $5000 will be returned to the university, The Scholarship Recipient Is not eligible to keep the scholarship payment as the student is charged local fees in Spring 2026.

d. Students studying at the WSU-SCC or other offshore campus

The scholarship is not available for any Program or Subject offered at Western Sydney University's Sydney City (WSU-SCC) and other offshore campuses. The total Scholarship contribution will be pro-rated should the recipient enrolls any Subject offered by the Sydney City or offshore campuses. For example:

- i. A Scholarship Recipient who has been awarded $5,000 multi-year scholarship and completed 80 credit points in the first year of study, but 20 credit points were the subjects offered by the Sydney City Campus, the scholarship value for the second payment will be $3,750 (rather than $5,000).
- ii. A Scholarship Recipient who has been awarded $3000 multi-year scholarship and completed 240 credit points in the

e. Student withdrawals from subjects

Where a Scholarship Recipient decides to withdraw from his/her subjects attempted in the past Study Period and approval is granted within the following semester, the next scholarship payment is likely to be postponed. For example:

- i. For a Scholarship Recipient who has been awarded a $5,000 multi-year Scholarship, studies a Full Time Study Load (40 credit points) in Autumn 2026 and has received the first scholarship payment on 15 June 2026 for contributing towards the Spring 2026 tuition fee, but later receives 'W' grade for 20 credit points the Scholarship Recipient attempted in Autumn 2026. The second scholarship payment will be postponed to 15 December 2027 or until at least 80 credit points are fully attempted ('W' grade subjects are excluded).

f. Student reduces their study load

Where a Scholarship Recipient decides to enrol in a Reduced Study Load, scholarship payment is likely to be postponed. For example:

- i. For a Scholarship Recipient who has been awarded a $5,000 multi-year Scholarship, has been approved to enrol in 30 credit points in Autumn 2026 Study Period, the Scholarship Recipient will receive the first scholarship payment by 15 December 2026 for contributing towards the Autumn 2027 tuition fee, because the Scholarship Recipient did not fully attempt 40 credit points in Autumn 2026 Study Period. The scholarship payment is strictly determined by the attempted credit points.
