

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

Vice Chancellor Academic Excellence Sustainable Development Goal (SDG) Scholarship – Undergraduate 2023 & 2024 (50%)

1. NAME OF SCHOLARSHIP

- 1.1 The Scholarship governed by these terms and conditions will be known as the “Western Sydney University Vice Chancellor Academic Excellence Sustainable Development Goal (SDG) Scholarship – Undergraduate 2023 & 2024” (referred to in these terms as the “Scholarship”). For the purposes of these terms and conditions the Western Sydney University may also be referred to as the “University” or “Western”.
- 1.2 In these Terms and Conditions, the following words have these meanings unless the context requires otherwise:
- (a) Advanced Standing means recognition by the University in a Program or Subject on the basis of previous successfully completed studies or prior learning in accordance with policies of the University.
 - (b) Census Date means the last day (generally 31 March and 31 August) on which an Overseas Student can withdraw from a Program without having to pay the Program Fee.
 - (c) Commencing Scholarship Recipient means a Scholarship Recipient who was or will be awarded a Scholarship on or after the Summer Term 3, 2021 (November 2021 Intake) Study Period.
 - (d) Continuing Scholarship Recipient means a Scholarship Recipient who was awarded a Scholarship and enrolled for more than one study period.
 - (e) Credit Points means the value of a Subject or Unit of Study.
 - (f) CRICOS means the Commonwealth Register of Institutions and Courses for Overseas Students.
 - (g) eCoE means the electronic Confirmation of Enrolment which the University issues to Overseas Students with a Letter of Offer and which enables Overseas Students to apply for an Australian student Visa.
 - (h) Eligible Program means any undergraduate Program delivered by the University except for the Ineligible Programs specified in clause 3.
 - (i) Full Time Study Load means a Study Load comprising 40 Credit Points per Study Period.
 - (j) Ineligible Programs are specified in clause 3.
 - (k) Intake means the date when a Student commences in their first Study Period. (Most Programs have two Intakes but these may vary).
 - (l) Letter of Offer means a letter from the University to a prospective student offering the prospective student a place in a Program at the University and may include an offer of a Scholarship.
 - (m) Overseas Student has the same meaning as in s.5 of the ESOS Act.
 - (n) Program or Course means a program or course of study which is registered on CRICOS leading to the award of an undergraduate degree by the University. An undergraduate Program or Course at the University usually comprises 24 Subjects or Units which is equivalent to 240 Credit Points.
 - (o) Program Tuition Fees (PTF) means fees that are directly related to the provision of a Program delivered by the University but excludes Student Services and Amenities Fees (SSAF) and Overseas Student Health Cover (OSHC) fees and other costs associated with study.
 - (p) Reduced Study Load means a Study Load which is less than a Full Time Study Load.
 - (q) Scholarship means the Western Sydney University Vice Chancellor Academic Excellence Sustainable Development Goal (SDG) Scholarship – Undergraduate 2023 & 2024.
 - (r) Scholarship Recipient means an Overseas Student who is awarded a Scholarship by the University.
 - (s) Student means a person enrolled in an undergraduate degree with the University and includes Overseas Student.
 - (t) Study Load means the numbers of Credit Points in which a Student is enrolled.
 - (u) Study Period means a period of study or Term during which Students undertake lectures, tutorials, continuous assessment and examinations related to a Program or Subject. Terms are semester or trimester based and some are quarterly.
 - (v) Subject or Unit means a discrete component of a Program or Course respectively and is usually equivalent to 10 Credit Points at the University.
 - (w) WSU-SCC Campus means Western Sydney University’s Sydney City campus at 255 Elizabeth Street, Sydney, NSW 2000 or at any replacement premises.

2. VALUE OF SCHOLARSHIP

- 2.1 Fifty percent of tuition fees per annum, full-time only.
- 2.2 The scholarship is a tuition fee waiver and does not cover costs associated with living expenses, accommodation, transport, overseas student health cover or other costs associated with study.

3. DURATION OF SCHOLARSHIP AND ELIGIBLE COURSES

- 3.1 The duration of the Scholarship will be to a maximum of three continuous years (up to 240 credit points only) from the effective date of the commencement of the Scholarship, which is defined as the commencement date of the session following the date of the offer or such other date as set out in the University's Scholarship offer.
- 3.2 Honours year not included.
- 3.3 Any CRICOS registered undergraduate degree except the Doctor of Medicine and Bachelor of Nursing.
- 3.4 Any Programs or Subjects delivered at the WSU-SCC Campus not included.

4. PAYMENT DETAILS & CONDITIONS

- 4.1 The scholarship recipient must notify the University in writing that he/she will accept the Scholarship offer by signing and returning the Scholarship Recipient Agreement together with admission acceptance by the acceptance date as stated in the email which scholarship offer was sent. Failure to notify the University will lead to the Scholarship offer being withdrawn and made available to another person. The scholarship recipient agrees to observe the terms and conditions of the Scholarship as set out in this document. The scholarship recipient must be enrolled in an eligible course at the University as published on the scholarship webpage - https://www.westernsydney.edu.au/international/home/apply/admissions/scholarships/future_international_students.
- 4.2 The scholarship recipient will be paid 50% of the annual scholarship value per study period to the student fee account (not the scholarship recipient's bank account).
- 4.3 The scholarship recipient will be paid the undergraduate tuition fee scholarship after the Census date of scholarship recipient's each semester. Scholarship value will be allocated to the scholarship recipient's fee account (not bank account). Census date for:
 - Autumn session: 31 March
 - Spring session: 31 August.
- 4.4 The scholarship value can be viewed from the scholarship recipient's statement of account six weeks prior to the subsequent session commences.
- 4.5 The scholarship recipient must commence the eligible undergraduate coursework program at Western Sydney University in 2023 or 2024 for the first time. Commencement may not be deferred to a different intake or year after scholarship offer was made, subject to scholarship availability.
- 4.6 The University is required to provide the student with an electronic Confirmation of Enrolment (eCoE) to enable the student to apply for an Australian student Visa. The eCoE will not be issued until the student has paid the required deposit amount as indicated in the offer letter.
- 4.7 The recipient must maintain a full-time study load (40 credit points in each semester or 20 credit points in each quarter). Changes in enrolment (i.e. course changes, study load, withdrawal, resignation or leave of absence) require prior approval of the University AND Western Sydney International. The recipient must notify Western Sydney International, by joining the regular Zoom session or submitting scholarship enquiry form via WesternNow for any change of enrolments. Their scholarship eligibility will be re-assessed in line with these Scholarship Terms and Conditions and may result in cancellation of scholarship.
- 4.8 The scholarship is for the nominated course identified in the offer letter which the scholarship recipient has accepted when scholarship offer was accepted. Changes in course are subject to approval from Western Sydney International.
- 4.9 Withdrawal from study, unit or changes in visa status renders the scholarship recipient liable to repay any scholarship funds received for the relevant session. For example, if the scholarship recipient decides to withdraw from his/her study in Autumn 2023 semester or is no longer considered as international student and the value of the scholarship has been allocated to the student fee account and has been used to pay for the Autumn 2023 semester's tuition fee, the scholarship recipient is required to repay the scholarship value for Autumn 2023 semester. No scholarship value can be refunded to the scholarship recipient.
- 4.10 Scholarship Recipients must notify the University, using their University student email account, of any plans of changes to their Study Load, such as a reduced Study Load, withdrawal, resignation or leave of absence, or any change in their Visa type or status, and written approval must be requested from the University (and the International Scholarship Team) for all such changes.
- 4.11 Scholarship Recipients may make request a change, reduction or suspension of their Study Load, or to take a leave of absence, and for an associated extension of their Scholarship. The University will re-assess the Scholarship Recipients eligibility for the Scholarship in these circumstances.
- 4.12 The University will assess all requests to suspend or reduce a Study Load or take a leave of absence, and for ongoing eligibility for or an extension to a Scholarship on a case-by-case basis and may request that the Scholarship Recipients provide supporting documentation from the Scholarship Recipients. The decision will be made by the University in its sole and absolute discretion and no correspondence will be entered into.
- 4.13 If the University (and the International Scholarship Team) gives written approval for a change to a Study Load, and agrees to extend the Scholarship, the Scholarship will be extended for a maximum of one year.
- 4.14 If any of the specified conditions are not met, the scholarship recipient status and continuation of the scholarship will be assessed and determined by the Director International Strategy, Mobility & Operations, Western Sydney International

- 4.15 The scholarship recipient will be responsible for any costs associated with obtaining a student Visa, overseas student health cover, student services amenities fee (SSAF) and any other associated costs of study.
- 4.16 The scholarship covers the minimum total credit points for completing the course program. Repeating or failed units are not covered.
- 4.17 For Scholarship taxation implications, recipients are advised to seek their own financial and tax advice on the impact of the receipt of the scholarship funds and review the Australian Taxation Office website at <http://www.ato.gov.au/>

5. SCHOLARSHIP CONTINUING CONDITIONS

- 5.1 The scholarship recipient is expected to maintain satisfactory academic progress by passing all unit attempts AND maintaining a credit average (cumulative GPA 5 or greater) over the academic year (January to December) for the duration of the scholarship.
- 5.2 The scholarship recipient's mode of study must be full-time (40 credit points per semester).
- 5.3 The scholarship recipient must not seek to receive advanced standing throughout their course.
- 5.4 The scholarship recipient must notify Western Sydney International (internationalscholarships@westernsydney.edu.au), using their student email account, of changes to study pattern and seek for scholarship approval, i.e. course changes, study load, withdrawal, resignation or leave of absence, prior to any changes happen officially.
- 5.5 It is the scholarship recipient's responsibility to ensure that the scholarship's terms and conditions are met and must not expect any form of reminder from the university.
- 5.6 The scholarship recipient agrees to periodically check their University email account for updates regarding their Scholarship.
