1002690	2/10/2025	Findings as to Western Sydney University's 12 substantiated complaints with regard to antisemitism, as referenced in the Vice Chancellor's statement to the Antisemitism at Australian Universities Inquiry: "Last year we received 62 complaints, some relating directly to antisemitism, some to Islamophobia, and, indeed, a variety of criticisms of our position from students and staff of all kinds and of all faiths. Of those 62 complaints, 12 were substantiated with regard to antisemitism, and consequences have followed, including suspension, expulsion from the university and the like. I have kept a close eye on those processes, and they work."	Please contact the Right to Information Office at rti@westernsydney.edu.au
