WESTERN SYDNEY UNIVERSITY

Business School

REGISTER HERE

Symposium on Carbon Accounting, Reporting & Sustainability 2026

Joint hosts: UTS: Transdisciplinary School; Carbon Accounting & Assurance Subgroup, Accounting and Finance Association of Australia and New Zealand (AFAANZ)

Proudly supported by Chartered Accountants Australia and New Zealand (CA ANZ), The British Accounting Review (BAR)* and Journal of Accounting and Public Policy (JPP)*

6 NOVEMBER 2026

Karen McWilliams FCA
Sustainability Leader, Advocacy, CA ANZ

Dr Keith, Kendall
CEO & Chair, AASB

Western Sydney University Business School, Parramatta City Campus

Friday
6 November 2026

8.00am - 5.30pm

Western Sydney University Business School

Level 9, 169 Macquarie Street Parramatta NSW 2050

Symposium on Carbon Accounting, Reporting & Sustainability 2026

Hosted by Western Sydney University Business School

By joining us you will take part in:

1. Keynotes from senior leaders at AASB, CA ANZ, Big 4, leading international researchers, and more!
2. Workshop & Panel discussion: major issues and challenges relating to carbon accounting, climate and carbon reporting, Green House Gas (GHG) emissions assurance, carbon credit trading and sustainability
3. Networking with academics, business professionals, and policy experts
4. Awards for Best Paper & Best Presentation
   A doctoral workshop for PhD students to
5. Present research and receive expert feedback

Whether you're in academia, business, or policy, this is your chance to engage with cutting-edge research and shape the future of sustainable business practices.

REGISTER NOW:
Applications close 30 October

WESTERN SYDNEY UNIVERSITY

Business School